BAD BLOW FOR FIREMEN

A NUMBER OF MINES IN THE ANTHRACITE DISTRICT RESUME OPERATIONS.

MINERS ANXIOUS TO RETURN

Heads of the Union Would Have a Hard Time Keeping Them From Work—No Indications of a Settlement in the Sheet Steel Workers' Strike—Men Well Satisfied With the Showing Made.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 20.—More mines were in operation and more coal was hoisted in the Wyoming valley than any day since the stationary firemen's strike began. Despite any action that may be taken by the officers of the United Mine Workers as an association the fact cannot be denied but that the United Mine Workers as a body are anxious to get back to work. How long they can be kept out by the executive heads is extremely problematical. The gains made by the companies were as follows: The Susquehanna Coal company, operating all the collierics at Nentuck, had more men at work than any previous day and their output was large. The firemen at the Avondale mine of the Lackawanna company went back to their old posts and work at the mine has been resumed. No. 8 colliery of the Erie company at Pittston resumed work during the morning, 800 men being employed there. The Pettibone colliery of the Lackawanna company found itself able to start up at noon and operations were resumed. No attempt at work was done at any of the mines of the Delaware and Hudson or the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre company. In the face of this change in the situation the strikers are by no means discouraged. In an official statement issued during the evening it is said that in the upper anthracite region the situation remains the same, with strong indications of increased wages for the firemen and there is a greater number of mines idle than ever.

NOT CHANGED MATERIALLY.

No Settlement of the Amalgamated Strike in Sight Yet.

Pittsburg, July 20.—The strike situation is not materially changed, although many rumors are in the air to the effect that a settlement of the troubles is imminent, but none of these reports have been verified and the conclusion reached is that no settlement is in sight.

At the offices of the Carnegie company and at the headquarters of the Manufacturers the usual silence is preserved concerning the condition of business or the status of the strike.

President Shaffer of the Amalgamated Association, however, expresses his entire satisfaction with the progress of the battle and says the workers have gained steadily, while the manufacturers have lost continually since last Monday. He says up to the present time the Amalgamated forces contemplate no change in their programme, being perfectly satisfied with the showing their people have made.

AFFECTS SEVEN THOUSAND.

Southwestern Coal Miners Submit a Scale to the Operators.

Kansas City, July 20.—Representatives of the coal miners of district 25, which comprises all the sub-districts of Missouri, besides Leavenworth county, Kan., through John Mitchell, national president, have submitted a blanket scale of wages for miners and day laborers about the mines to the operators, with whom they have been in conference. Seven thousand men will be affected if a strike shall be called in this district.

Negroes to Take Strikers' Places.

New Orleans, July 20.—Two men have come here from Pittsburg to get negro labor to take the places of strikers in the steel mills of the United States Steel corporation. They secured 50 men and had reports from similar agents in Anniston and Bessemer, Ala., that they had secured 40 men.

Two More Sign the Scale.

Chicago, July 20.—The striking iron molders have added two more firms to the list of those that signed the union agreement for an advance in wages to $3 a day. This makes 13 firms that have signed and about 300 strikers who have returned to work, leaving 800 still idle.

CONSUL GENERAL IS DEAD.

Represented His British Majesty's Government on the Pacific Coast.

San Francisco, July 20.—W. Clayton Pickersgill, H. B. M., consul general for the Pacific coast states and territories, died in a sanitarium in Alameda, to which he was conveyed on Sunday last from his summer residence in the Santa Cruz mountains.

Mr. Pickersgill had been seriously ill for some months past, the result of a long residence in the malarial regions of Africa as consular representative of the British government.

Dead Number Twenty-two.

Kansas City, July 20.—O. D. Sanborn, the Chenoa, Ills., banker who was terribly scalded in the Alton wreck last week, died at St. Joseph's hospital, being the 22d victim to succumb.

Salmon Fishers' Strike Ended.

Vancouver, B. C., July 20.—The strike of the salmon fishermen against the Fraser river canners has been adjusted, the Vancouver board of trade having acted as mediator. It has been agreed that the fishermen shall receive 12 1-2 cents per fish for one quarter of the entire pack and 10 cents for the remainder of the pack. The union men will begin fishing on Sunday night.

The Word "Christian" Stays.

Richmond, Va., July 20.—The word "Christian" stays in the bill of rights in the Virginia constitution as far as the committee is concerned. By a vote of 7 to 5 it decided to retain the original language.

NORTHCOTT'S APPOINTMENTS.

State Deputies for the Modern Woodmen Named.

Springfield, Ills., July 20.—Lieutenant Governor Northcott, head consul of the Modern Woodmen of America, announces the appointment of the following state deputies: Those newly appointed are: California, D. I. Thornton; Maryland, John F. Harris; Iowa, George N. Frink; Delaware, George H. Russell; Nevada, L. H. Addis, Utah, L. Pierce; New Jersey, E. H. Young; Maine, F. W. Stevens.

Among those reappointed are: Colorado, L. H. Turley; Idaho, T. W. Bartley; Michigan, C. J. Byrns; Minnesota, W. H. Dawson; Nebraska, Ralph E. Johnson; South Dakota, J. H. Gallagher; Wisconsin, B. F. Keeler.

The board of directors has appointed two general attorneys and the Mississippi river will be the dividing line of their territories. The general attorneys appointed are Hon. J. G. Johns of Kansas, former head attorney, and J. H. White of Illinois.

SCORES OF SHEEP DROWN.

Cloudburst Floods Harrold, S. D., and Does Heavy Damage.

Huron, S. D., July 20.—News comes from Harrold, 70 miles west of here, of a cloudburst there, flooding the town and doing much damage. Three inches of water fell in 15 minutes.

Ranchmen had scores of sheep drowned, many cattle were killed by lightning and some large herds were stampeded. Fields of small grain and corn were wiped out and the roadbed of the Chicago and Northwestern railway was damaged. No hail and only a little wind accompanied the storm.

Unknown Negro Lynched.

Crowley, La., July 20.—An unknown negro was lynched here during the day. An officer accosted him to learn his business when he was fired upon by the negro, who then fled. The man escaped into the woods, but was finally caught and taken back to jail, where the crowd captured him and strung him up.

Great Uneasiness at Tien Tsin.

Tien Tsin, July 20.—Great uneasiness is felt here following the resumption by the Chinese of the partial control of the city. Natives are cutting the telegraph line outside of Tien Tsin and fears of further violence are entertained.

PROBLEM FOR YERKES

INTERNAL REVENUE COMMISSIONER TRYING TO DEVISE A SCHEME.

PRODUCTS OF PORTO RICO

After President's Proclamation Cigars, Cigarettes, Rum, Etc., Will Pay No Duty—How to Collect Internal Revenue Taxes Puts the Government in a Quandary—No Official Authorized to Sell Stamps on the Island.

Washington, July 20.—Commissioner Yerkes of the internal revenue bureau at present is busily engaged in devising a scheme for the collection of the internal revenue tax on cigars, cigarettes, rum, etc., brought into the United States from Porto Rico after the president issues his proclamation declaring that free trade exists between the two countries. Under the existing laws internal revenue stamps can be purchased only from collectors of internal revenue or their deputies, and, as Porto Rico is not a collection district, no one there is authorized to sell stamps and hence the difficulty in arranging a system by which exporters may procure stamps without inconvenience. Another difficulty is encountered in the fact that cigars brought in from Porto Rico, not being subject to customs duties, may be brought in at any point or port in the United States, whether it be a port of entry or not, and the danger that large quantities of goods may be smuggled into this country is very great. It is probable that congress will be asked at the next session to make Porto Rico an internal revenue collection district or that it be annexed to some one of the collection districts in the Southern states. Until this is done it is expected that an effective administration of the laws will be accomplished only with some difficulty.

MUST NOT ACT AS AGENTS.

Postmaster General Issues Order to Rural Letter Carriers.

Washington, July 20.—Postmaster General Smith has issued the following order:

"Hereafter rural letter carriers shall not act as agents, salesmen or solicitors for express companies, letter box manufacturers, wholesale houses, corporations or firms, nor engage in any business or avocation which would interfere with the proper performance of their official duties. They may act as news agents, sell newspapers or periodicals on their own account, or accept and collect subscriptions for the same. When carriers receive newspapers or periodicals by express or by other means outside the mails to be sold or delivered on their routes, they, as news agents, will be required to pay postage on such matter at the second class rate of postage (1 cent per pound), except in the case of county papers which are mailed free to subscribers residing in the county in which they are published.

"This order is not intended to prohibit carriers from performing various private commissions for the accommodation of the patrons on their routes so long as it does not interfere with the regular and prompt performance of their duty."

GIRLS OFFERED FOR SALE.

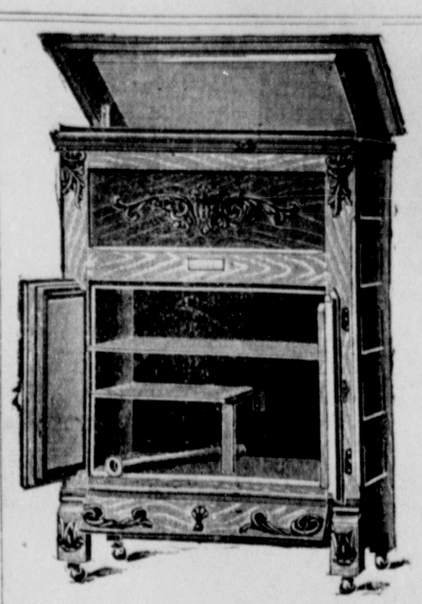

Hundreds Bought by the Chinese Relief Commissioners.

New York, July 20.—Chow Tze, Chinese consul in New York, has forwarded to The Christian Herald the reports of the native commissioners appointed by the governor of Shan Si to assist in the work of relief. These reports detail the work of the relief committee through Shan Si. Near Michi City they saw refugees eating tree leaves and apparently enjoying them. Later they saw hungry birds in the woods fighting for dead bodies. In hundreds of instances young girls who had been sold were purchased by the relief commissioners and sent to the relief camps and their families notified. On one day, May 18, 67 girls were so secured. At places some persons engaged in the traffic were seized and put to death in iron cages, but the authorities seemed powerless to put a stop to the practice.

THE NEW ARMORED CRUISERS.

Naval Board of Construction Considering Plans.

Washington, July 20.—Plans for the new armored cruisers which are expected to be the finest ships of the navy were before the naval board of construction during the day. The plans show a displacement, 4[illegible] 11,000 tons displacement, 4[illegible] length, with 5-inch belt [illegible]. The battery consists [illegible] in turrets, 6-inch guns [illegible] and auxiliary batteries [illegible] rapid firers. As a result [illegible] it is probable that [illegible] will prepare alternative plans showing somewhat larger cruisers and embodying some changes suggested.

PLEASURE CRAFT CAPSIZES.

Philadelphia Yacht Wrecked on Long Island Sound.

New Haven, Conn., July 20.—Five persons were drowned in the sound off here by the capsizing of the yawl-rigged yacht Venitzia of Philadelphia, five miles east of Sands Point, near the New York and Connecticut line. Two only of those on board the yacht were rescued. The drowned are:

Arthur C. Colburn, owner of the yacht, and his daughters, Ida and Annette Colburn, of Philadelphia; Captain Flint, of Brooklyn, N. Y., master of the yacht, and a sailor, name unknown.

Others on board the ill-fated craft, Mrs. Walter T. Sprankle of Philadelphia and daughter of the owner of the yacht, and the steward. James Standbridge of New York, were rescued by the tug Gertrude after clinging for two hours to the bottom of a capsized boat.

The yacht left Delaware City Monday morning, bound for Newport. Thursday morning it started from Thompsonville, S. I., the intention being to put into Black Rock, Conn., and take on board Mrs. Sprankle's husband, who was expected there.

GET DOWN TO BUSINESS.

Epworth Leaguers Devote Entire Day to Routine Matters.

San Francisco, July 20.—The delegates to the International Epworth League have settled down to business. The entire day was devoted to routine matters, the missionary feature of the religious effort being dwelt upon at length by many of the speakers. Prayer services were held at sunrise in several churches, all of which were largely attended. Promptly at 9 o'clock convention meetings were called to order in the Mechanics' Pavilion and the Alhambra theater, and in both places the addresses delivered were listened to with marked attention. At noon prayer meetings for business men were held in the rooms of the chamber of commerce and the court of the Palace hotel and many prominent citizens were among the worshippers.

In the afternoon overflow meetings were held in the Metropolitan Temple. All of the sessions were characterized by the earnest spirit of religious enthusiasm which has marked all the proceedings since the assembling of the convention.

BRAINED THE FOREMAN.

Fearful Act of a Convict at the Jeffersonville (Ind.) Prison.

Jeffersonville, Ind., July 20.—E. S. McHale, a foreman in the shoe department of the state prison here, was fatally beaten by Lee Kelly, a convict. Kelly brained the foreman with a piece of shafting while women visitors at the prison looked on. The women were thrown into a panic. McHale was taken to Louisville, where a dangerous operation was performed in a final effort to save his life.

FIERCE ELECTRIC STORM RESULTS IN FOUR DEATHS IN PENNSYLVANIA.

SEVEN OTEERS ARE INJURED

Had Just Entered Some Buildings to Escape the Rain—The Pleasure Yacht Venitzia Capsizes on Long Island Sound and Five of Her Occupants Are Drowned—Two Are Rescued.

Grove City, Pa., July 20.—A fierce electric storm here resulted in four deaths and severe injury to seven persons. A section crew on the Bessemer and Lake Erie railroad were returning home from work when the storm came up. They left the railroad track and hastened to a deserted house at the Pinchalong mine for shelter. Hardly had they reached the shelter of the place when the house was struck by lightning. Luther Campbell, foreman of the crew, and Howard Cornelius, one of the section men, were both struck by one bolt and instantly killed. Two others were also struck and rendered unconscious for eight hours from the same flash and all are in a critical condition.

During the storm a house occupied by a gang of Italians, working on the railroad a few miles south of this place, was struck. There were several men crowded into the little cabin and the house was almost totally destroyed. Anton Daranski and Michael Zaccagai were instantly killed and five of their companions were severely shocked.

DISAPPROVED BY LONG.

MacLay's Naval History Cannot Be Used as a Text Book.

Washington, July 20.—The secretary of the navy has decided that the third volume of MacLay's history of the Spanish-American war shall not be used as a text book at the naval academy unless the obnoxious language it contains in characterizing the action of Rear Admiral Schley shall be eliminated. The secretary says that it would be manifestly improper to have a history containing such intemperate language as a text book for the cadets. He will inform both Commander Wainwright, who is in command of the naval academy, and Mr. MacLay, the author of the history, of his decision.

In this connection the secretary says that the proofs of the entire volume were not submitted to him by the historian. He received only the proofs of the third chapter, that relating to the mobilization of the fleets, which contained a summary of the orders which he, as secretary of the navy, had issued in making the naval preparations for the war. That chapter was satisfactory and he returned it to Mr. MacLay with an indentation of his approval. He says he never saw the account of the battle of Santiago and the criticisms of Rear Admiral Schley until after the book was published. Mr. MacLay was appointed to his present position in the New York navy yard August 23, 1900, having been transferred from the light house service.

BAD BLOW FOR FIREMEN

A NUMBER OF MINES IN THE ANTHRACITE DISTRICT RESUME OPERATIONS.

MINERS ANXIOUS TO RETURN

Heads of the Union Would Have a Hard Time Keeping Them From Work—No Indications of a Settlement in the Sheet Steel Workers' Strike—Men Well Satisfied With the Showing Made.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 20.—More mines were in operation and more coal was hoisted in the Wyoming valley than any day since the stationary firemen's strike began. Despite any action that may be taken by the officers of the United Mine Workers as an association the fact cannot be denied but that the United Mine Workers as a body are anxious to get back to work. How long they can be kept out by the executive heads is extremely problematical. The gains made by the companies were as follows: The Susquehanna Coal company, operating all the collierics at Nentuck, had more men at work than any previous day and their output was large. The firemen at the Avondale mine of the Lackawanna company went back to their old posts and work at the mine has been resumed. No. 8 colliery of the Erie company at Pittston resumed work during the morning, 800 men being employed there. The Pettibone colliery of the Lackawanna company found itself able to start up at noon and operations were resumed. No attempt at work was done at any of the mines of the Delaware and Hudson or the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre company. In the face of this change in the situation the strikers are by no means discouraged. In an official statement issued during the evening it is said that in the upper anthracite region the situation remains the same, with strong indications of increased wages for the firemen and there is a greater number of mines idle than ever.

NOT CHANGED MATERIALLY.

No Settlement of the Amalgamated Strike in Sight Yet.

Pittsburg, July 20.—The strike situation is not materially changed, although many rumors are in the air to the effect that a settlement of the troubles is imminent, but none of these reports have been verified and the conclusion reached is that no settlement is in sight.

At the offices of the Carnegie company and at the headquarters of the Manufacturers the usual silence is preserved concerning the condition of business or the status of the strike.

President Shaffer of the Amalgamated Association, however, expresses his entire satisfaction with the progress of the battle and says the workers have gained steadily, while the manufacturers have lost continually since last Monday. He says up to the present time the Amalgamated forces contemplate no change in their programme, being perfectly satisfied with the showing their people have made.

AFFECTS SEVEN THOUSAND.

Southwestern Coal Miners Submit a Scale to the Operators.

Kansas City, July 20.—Representatives of the coal miners of district 25, which comprises all the sub-districts of Missouri, besides Leavenworth county, Kan., through John Mitchell, national president, have submitted a blanket scale of wages for miners and day laborers about the mines to the operators, with whom they have been in conference. Seven thousand men will be affected if a strike shall be called in this district.

Negroes to Take Strikers' Places.

New Orleans, July 20.—Two men have come here from Pittsburg to get negro labor to take the places of strikers in the steel mills of the United States Steel corporation. They secured 50 men and had reports from similar agents in Anniston and Bessemer, Ala., that they had secured 40 men.

Two More Sign the Scale.

Chicago, July 20.—The striking iron molders have added two more firms to the list of those that signed the union agreement for an advance in wages to $3 a day. This makes 13 firms that have signed and about 300 strikers who have returned to work, leaving 800 still idle.

CONSUL GENERAL IS DEAD.

Represented His British Majesty's Government on the Pacific Coast.

San Francisco, July 20.—W. Clayton Pickersgill, H. B. M., consul general for the Pacific coast states and territories, died in a sanitarium in Alameda, to which he was conveyed on Sunday last from his summer residence in the Santa Cruz mountains.

Mr. Pickersgill had been seriously ill for some months past, the result of a long residence in the malarial regions of Africa as consular representative of the British government.

Dead Number Twenty-two.

Kansas City, July 20.—O. D. Sanborn, the Chenoa, Ills., banker who was terribly scalded in the Alton wreck last week, died at St. Joseph's hospital, being the 22d victim to succumb.

Salmon Fishers' Strike Ended.

Vancouver, B. C., July 20.—The strike of the salmon fishermen against the Fraser river canners has been adjusted, the Vancouver board of trade having acted as mediator. It has been agreed that the fishermen shall receive 12 1-2 cents per fish for one quarter of the entire pack and 10 cents for the remainder of the pack. The union men will begin fishing on Sunday night.

The Word "Christian" Stays.

Richmond, Va., July 20.—The word "Christian" stays in the bill of rights in the Virginia constitution as far as the committee is concerned. By a vote of 7 to 5 it decided to retain the original language.

NORTHCOTT'S APPOINTMENTS.

State Deputies for the Modern Woodmen Named.

Springfield, Ills., July 20.—Lieutenant Governor Northcott, head consul of the Modern Woodmen of America, announces the appointment of the following state deputies: Those newly appointed are: California, D. I. Thornton; Maryland, John F. Harris; Iowa, George N. Frink; Delaware, George H. Russell; Nevada, L. H. Addis; Utah, L. Pierce; New Jersey, E. H. Young; Maine, F. W. Stevens.

Among those reappointed are: Colorado, L. H. Turley; Idaho, T. W. Bartley; Michigan, C. J. Byrns; Minnesota, W. H. Dawson; Nebraska, Ralph E. Johnson; South Dakota, J. H. Gallagher; Wisconsin, B. F. Keeler.

The board of directors has appointed two general attorneys and the Mississippi river will be the dividing line of their territories. The general attorneys appointed are Hon. J. G. Johns of Kansas, former head attorney, and J. H. White of Illinois.

SCORES OF SHEEP DROWN.

Cloudburst Floods Harrold, S. D., and Does Heavy Damage.

Huron, S. D., July 20.—News comes from Harrold, 70 miles west of here, of a cloudburst there, flooding the town and doing much damage. Three inches of water fell in 15 minutes.

Ranchmen had scores of sheep drowned, many cattle were killed by lightning and some large herds were stampeded. Fields of small grain and corn were wiped out and the roadbed of the Chicago and Northwestern railway was damaged. No hail and only a little wind accompanied the storm.

Unknown Negro Lynched.

Crowley, La., July 20.—An unknown negro was lynched here during the day. An officer accosted him to learn his business when he was fired upon by the negro, who then fled. The man escaped into the woods, but was finally caught and taken back to jail, where the crowd captured him and strung him up.

Great Uneasiness at Tien Tsin.

Tien Tsin, July 20.—Great uneasiness is felt here following the resumption by the Chinese of the partial control of the city. Natives are cutting the telegraph line outside of Tien Tsin and fears of further violence are entertained.

PROBLEM FOR YERKES

INTERNAL REVENUE COMMISSIONER TRYING TO DEVISE A SCHEME.

PRODUCTS OF PORTO RICO

After President's Proclamation Cigars, Cigarettes, Rum, Etc., Will Pay No Duty—How to Collect Internal Revenue Taxes Puts the Government in a Quandary—No Official Authorized to Sell Stamps on the Island.

Washington, July 20.—Commissioner Yerkes of the internal revenue bureau at present is busily engaged in devising a scheme for the collection of the internal revenue tax on cigars, cigarettes, rum, etc., brought into the United States from Porto Rico after the president issues his proclamation declaring that free trade exists between the two countries. Under the existing laws internal revenue stamps can be purchased only from collectors of internal revenue or their deputies, and, as Porto Rico is not a collection district, no one there is authorized to sell stamps and hence the difficulty in arranging a system by which exporters may procure stamps without inconvenience. Another difficulty is encountered in the fact that cigars brought in from Porto Rico, not being subject to customs duties, may be brought in at any point or port in the United States, whether it be a port of entry or not, and the danger that large quantities of goods may be smuggled into this country is very great. It is probable that congress will be asked at the next session to make Porto Rico an internal revenue collection district or that it be annexed to some one of the collection districts in the Southern states. Until this is done it is expected that an effective administration of the laws will be accomplished only with some difficulty.

MUST NOT ACT AS AGENTS.

Postmaster General Issues Order to Rural Letter Carriers.

Washington, July 20.—Postmaster General Smith has issued the following order:

"Hereafter rural letter carriers shall not act as agents, salesmen or solicitors for express companies, letter box manufacturers, wholesale houses, corporations or firms, nor engage in any business or avocation which would interfere with the proper performance of their official duties. They may act as news agents, sell newspapers or periodicals on their own account, or accept and collect subscriptions for the same. When carriers receive newspapers or periodicals by express or by other means outside the mails to be sold or delivered on their routes, they, as news agents, will be required to pay postage on such matter at the second class rate of postage (1 cent per pound), except in the case of county papers which are mailed free to subscribers residing in the county in which they are published.

"This order is not intended to prohibit carriers from performing various private commissions for the accommodation of the patrons on their routes so long as it does not interfere with the regular and prompt performance of their duty."

GIRLS OFFERED FOR SALE.

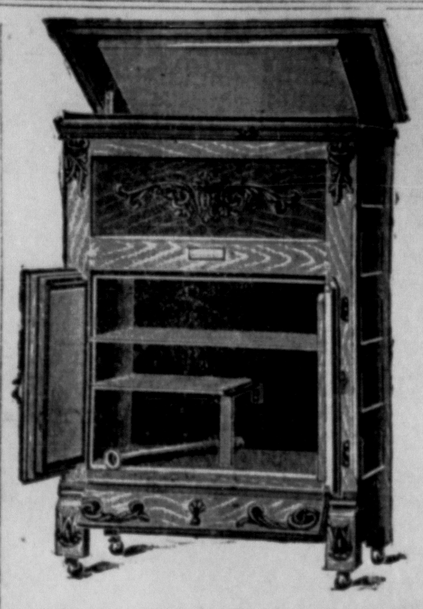

Hundreds Bought by the Chinese Relief Commissioners.

New York, July 20.—Chow Tze, Chinese consul in New York, has forwarded to The Christian Herald the reports of the native commissioners appointed by the governor of Shan Si to assist in the work of relief. These reports detail the work of the relief committee through Shan Si. Near Michi City they saw refugees eating tree leaves and apparently enjoying them. Later they saw hungry birds in the woods fighting for dead bodies. In hundreds of instances young girls who had been sold were purchased by the relief commissioners and sent to the relief camps and their families notified. On one day, May 18, 67 girls were so secured. At places some persons engaged in the traffic were seized and put to death in iron cages, but the authorities seemed powerless to put a stop to the practice.

THE NEW ARMORED CRUISERS.

Naval Board of Construction Considering Plans.

Washington, July 20.—Plans for the new armored cruisers which are expected to be the finest ships of the navy were before the naval board of construction during the day. The plans show a displacement, 11,000 tons displayed. 4 length, with 5-inch belt enclosure. The battery consists con Long Legs in turrets, 6-inch guns, ung stock and auxiliary batteries, ith letter "P" result mation leading ructor will prepare alternative plans showing somewhat larger cruisers and embodying some changes suggested.

This estimate places the requirements of North Dakota and Minnesota at 30,000 each and the number for South Dakota at 15,000 or 20,000.

PLEASURE CRAFT CAPSIZES.

Philadelphia Yacht Wrecked on Long Island Sound.

New Haven, Conn., July 20.—Five persons were drowned in the sound off here by the capsizing of the yawl-rigged yacht Venitzia of Philadelphia, five miles east of Sands Point, near the New York and Connecticut line. Two only of those on board the yacht were rescued. The drowned are:

Arthur C. Colburn, owner of the yacht, and his daughters, Ida and Annette Colburn, of Philadelphia; Captain Flint, of Brooklyn, N. Y., master of the yacht, and a sailor, name unknown.

Others on board the ill-fated craft, Mrs. Walter T. Sprankle of Philadelphia and daughter of the owner of the yacht, and the steward, James Standbridge of New York, were rescued by the tug Gertrude after clinging for two hours to the bottom of a capsized boat.

The yacht left Delaware City Monday morning, bound for Newport. Thursday morning it started from Thompsonville, S. I., the intention being to put into Black Rock, Conn., and take on board Mrs. Sprankle's husband, who was expected there.

GET DOWN TO BUSINESS.

Epworth Leaguers Devote Entire Day to Routine Matters.

San Francisco, July 20.—The delegates to the International Epworth League have settled down to business. The entire day was devoted to routine matters, the missionary feature of the religious effort being dwelt upon at length by many of the speakers. Prayer services were held at sunrise in several churches, all of which were largely attended. Promptly at 9 o'clock convention meetings were called to order in the Mechanics' Pavilion and the Alhambra theater, and in both places the addresses delivered were listened to with marked attention. At noon prayer meetings for business men were held in the rooms of the chamber of commerce and the court of the Palace hotel and many prominent citizens were among the worshippers.

In the afternoon overflow meetings were held in the Metropolitan Temple. All of the sessions were characterized by the earnest spirit of religious enthusiasm which has marked all the proceedings since the assembling of the convention.

BRAINED THE FOREMAN.

Fearful Act of a Convict at the Jeffersonville (Ind.) Prison.

Jeffersonville, Ind., July 20.—E. S. McHale, a foreman in the shoe department of the state prison here, was fatally beaten by Lee Kelly, a convict. Kelly brained the foreman with a piece of shafting while women visitors at the prison looked on. The women were thrown into a panic. McHale was taken to Louisville, where a dangerous operation was performed in a final effort to save his life.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING

FIERCE ELECTRIC STORM RESULTS IN FOUR DEATHS IN PENNSYLVANIA.

SEVEN OTEERS ARE INJURED

Had Just Entered Some Buildings to Escape the Rain—The Pleasure Yacht Venitzia Capsizes on Long Island Sound and Five of Her Occupants Are Drowned—Two Are Rescued.

Grove City, Pa., July 20.—A fierce electric storm here resulted in four deaths and severe injury to seven persons. A section crew on the Bessemer and Lake Erie railroad were returning home from work when the storm came up. They left the railroad track and hastened to a deserted house at the Pinchalong mine for shelter. Hardly had they reached the shelter of the place when the house was struck by lightning. Luther Campbell, foreman of the crew, and Howard Cornelius, one of the section men, were both struck by one bolt and instantly killed. Two others were also struck and rendered unconscious for eight hours from the same flash and all are in a critical condition.

During the storm a house occupied by a gang of Italians, working on the railroad a few miles south of this place, was struck. There were several men crowded into the little cabin and the house was almost totally destroyed. Anton Daranski and Michael Zaccagal were instantly killed and five of their companions were severely shocked.

MacLay's Naval History Cannot Be Used as a Text Book.

DRAINAGE CONVENTION ENDS

Next Meeting to Be Held at Wahpeton in October.

Fargo, N. D., July 19.—The tri-state drainage convention adjourned after a number of interesting speeches had been made. Speaker Dowling of Minnesota, H. A. Mayo of Walhalla, ex-Congressman Spalding of North Dakota and other prominent men were among the speakers.

Resolutions were adopted reciting the necessity of some governmental action and petitioning congress for an appropriation for the work of draining the Red river valley and controlling the water supply at the sources to avoid disastrous floods in the future.

The proceedings were ordered published and on motion of A. E. Fenton of Amenia a resolution was adopted calling on township organizations on both sides of the river to contribute funds to assist in the proper presentation of the necessities of the case to congress.

The meeting resulted in a fuller and more definite understanding of the real conditions and of the plans necessary to prevent the floods. This proposed movement has assumed a more tangible form and has good hope of success.

The next meeting will be held at Wahpeton, N. D., not later than Oct. 15 of this year.

AT EDWARD'S CORONATION.

Suggested That Dewey With a Large Squadron Should Attend.

Washington, July 19.—The suggestion has been made by a rear admiral in high standing that Admiral Dewey should be given command of a large squadron, comprising the best types of our new ships, to be present at the coronation of King Edward VII. The navy department has not thus far taken up the question of naval representation at this event, but the suggestion concerning Admiral Dewey and a large squadron of fine ships meets with general approval among high naval officials. The ships recently ordered to the European station are not considered fair representatives of our new navy, the Albany being a foreign built ship, the Chicago one of the early products of the new navy and the Nashville a comparatively small gunboat. It is estimated that the naval pageant at the time of the coronation will bring together some of the finest ships possessed by European countries, and for that reason it is urged that the United States should be represented by some of its best ships under Admiral Dewey.

INCREASED WHEAT YIELD.

Reports on the Crop in Russia and India Received in Washington.

Washington, July 19.—The state department is in receipt of interesting reports concerning the wheat crops of Russia and India. According to a report from Consul General Holloway at St. Petersburg there are good reasons to hope that the wheat harvest of 1901 will exceed that of 1900. The spring wheat is more promising than the winter crop, the latter having suffered heavily from various causes. However, it is stated that the loss in the winter crop will be balanced by the amount of spring wheat sown.

Consul General Patterson at Calcutta states that the wheat yield for India as a whole is estimated at about 6,580,000 tons, about 8 1-2 per cent more than the decennial average. The export of wheat from India this year, the consul general says, probably will be greatly increased and may reach from 10,000,000 to 15,000,000 bushels.

LONDON IS DISMAYED.

Has the Hottest Weather Experienced in Eleven Years.

London, July 19.—Great Britain has had no such weather as this in 11 years. The temperature was 98 in the shade at Southsea and Billingsboro, Lincolnshire. Lower temperatures were recorded at other points. The torrid sun caused the asphalt to soften and the tarry wood paving to bubble. The number of deaths and sun strokes has not been reckoned up, but these and the attempts at suicide in consequence of the heat are described as numerous.

Soldiers on duty suffered greatly, two dropping dead. The war office is relaxing regulations in some respects, substituting night for day. The meteorological office holds out no prospects of relief and London is dismayed at the prospects of another day of roasting.

UNQUALIFIED DENIAL.

Lamont Says He Is Not Slated for Mellen's Place.

New York, July 19.—Daniel S. Lamont, vice president of the Northern Pacific railway, said that he wished to deny unqualifiedly the report from Chicago that he would be selected as the president of the Northern Pacific railway to succeed President Mellen.

"The report is without foundation," said Mr. Lamont. "I am not aware that Mr. Mellen, whose efficiency is conceded and whose success is a matter of record, has any idea of retiring and I am positive that under no circumstances would I take the place."

A Fortune of Forty Millions.

Atlanta, Ga., July 19.—An Australian fortune of $40,000,000 is to be divided among the heirs of the late Josiah Tyson residing in Georgia and Alabama. The law firm of Hoke Smith & H. C. Peeples has communicated with the proper authorities at Melbourne and learned that the information as to the inheritance received here is correct.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Fifth International Convention Opens at San Francisco.

San Francisco, July 19.—The fifth international convention of the Epworth League was opened under the most auspicious conditions. The weather was ideal and the attendance equaled the most sanguine expectations.

The scene at the Mechanics' Pavilion, where the principal exercises of the day were held, was one not soon to be forgotten. Never in its history has the spacious interior of the Pavilion presented a more impressive spectacle and every unsightly inch of wall was hid by tasteful decorations.

When the convention proper was called to order by Rev. Thomas Filben of Pacific Grove not a blank space was to be seen from the grand organ to the farthest gallery. After a service of song, led by Robert Husband and participated in by the chorus of 2,000 voices, General Secretary Rev. J. F. Berry read a number of congratulatory messages received from prominent men throughout the Union. All were received with cheers, those from McKinley and Roosevelt arousing the audience to much enthusiasm.

The remarks of Governor Gage, Mayor Phelan, Bishop Hamilton, Bishop Joyce and the other speakers of the day also evoked consistent applause. It is already assured that the convention is destined to be one of the best in the annals of the Epworth League.

APPEALS FOR CUTICLE.

Epworth Leaguers Asked to Aid in Two Cases of Skin Grafting.

Kansas City, July 19.—Epworth Leaguers over the country will be appealed to to furnish enough cuticle for grafting over the burns of two victims of the recent Chicago and Alton wreck. It is announced that the burns of Miss Julia M. Hayslip, the 24-year-old daughter of a wealthy Chenoa, Ills., farmer, had not responded to the treatment as expected and that to save her from carrying a hideous scar all her life new skin must be grafted. It is stated a similar effort will be necessary in the case of Miss Zola Harry, 15 years old, of Hoopstown, Ills. Miss Hayslip and Miss Harry were on their way to San Francisco to attend the national convention of the Epworth League when they were caught in the wreck near Norton, Mo., and scalded so badly that their lives were despaired of for several days. The operations of grafting must be performed within a week and it has been decided to appeal to the Leaguers who will return home through Kansas City from the Pacific coast about that time to furnish the required cuticle.

FLED TO THE MOUNTAINS.

Negro Kills Two Well Known White Men at Dinges, W. Va.

Dinges, W. Va., July 19.—Henry Alexander, colored, shot and killed Philip Bennett and Benjamin Carter, both white, here during the afternoon and then fled to the mountains, where he was pursued by a posse. Alexander handed Bennett a quarter and requested him to change it and Bennett threw the money into the street. This enraged Alexander, who picked up the money and started to walk away when he suddenly wheeled about and opened fire, killing both Bennett and Carter. Alexander fled, but it was rumored here that he had been located in the hills four miles south of here by officers and taken to Williams by a circuitous route to avoid lynching. Both the dead men were well known and indignation runs high.

RAINFALL CONTINUES.

Drouth Completely Broken in Many Parts of the Southwest.

Kansas City, July 19.—Further good rains fell after midnight and during the day in many points in the Southwest and still more is predicted. The area covered was principally in Southwestern Missouri, Central and Southern Kansas and in the central part of the Indian and Oklahoma country. The heaviest fall was in Sedgwick county, in which Wichita is situated, where nearly two inches and a half of water fell. The rains have increased the prospects of half a crop of corn and will help pasturage. However, but little rain is reported in Northern and Western Kansas and some points are still suffering a drouth that extends back from four to eight weeks.

MONGOLIA IS NOW RUSSIAN.

Chinese Town of Urga Garrisoned by the Czar's Soldiers.

London, July 19.—"Mongolia is now Russian," says a dispatch to The Daily Express from St. Petersburg. "Urga, a Chinese frontier station on the road to Peking, about 200 miles south of Kikhta, has been fortified and garrisoned by Russian infantry and Cossacks. Surveying parties escorted by troops have penetrated as far as the edge of the great desert to determine the route of a direct railway to Peking across the desert and the point where it will join the Mid-Siberian railway extension now being constructed around the south end of Lake Bakal."

THE RAILROAD SCARE

ODD EFFECTS OF THE FIRST SIGHT OF A LOCOMOTIVE.

Some of the People of the South Hid Behind Trees In 1833, When the Iron Horse Went By—The Country's Earliest Railroad.

America cannot lay claim to the first locomotive or the first railroad. That great honor lies with England. Yet Yankee genius was not very far behind her, for, when George Stephenson launched his first real locomotive, the Rocket, on the Liverpool and Manchester road in 1829, the first spike had been driven on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, July 4, 1828, by Charles Carroll of Carrollton, the last surviving signer of the Declaration of Independence. This was the first road started in the United States, and in 1830 it had reached Ellicott Mills, 13 miles from Baltimore.

But the south can claim the honor of completing the longest railroad in the world at that date, being the old Charleston and Hamburg road, now a part of the South Carolina and Georgia system, which was begun in 1830, and by October, 1833, it had 137 miles of track in operation. In a letter from Mr. Samuel C. Clarke of Georgia, a kinsman of the writer, who attained the extreme age of 91 years and who had seen the beginning and the completion of this road, he thus gives his experience upon first sight of a locomotive:

"One day while going down to Charleston with a party of gentlemen to attend the races as we approached the city we saw in the distance the new railroad, finished some 10 or 12 miles out of Charleston. It was built upon piles, longer or short, according to the nature of the ground. Sometimes in crossing a ravine the rails were 20 feet from the surface. Our track ran near this elevated road, and soon a horrid shriek as from 20 panthers was heard in the woods. By this time we were nervous. Elephants and lions we had heard of, and some of us had seen them, but what monster was this whose screams we heard? Presently it came in sight, flying aloft through the air and breathing fire and smoke, and our frightened steeds became unmanageable, and in fact I think that some of our party were as badly frightened as their horses. If any of my readers are old enough to remember the introduction of locomotives and how they felt at first sight of them, they will perhaps understand our sensations that day in the pine woods.

"A mile or two farther on we came to a broken wagon by the side of the road, and near it sat a Georgia cracker smoking his pipe. On being asked what was his trouble he replied, 'Well, stranger, I've often heern tell of nullification, and now I reckon I've saw it for true.'"

It is somewhat amusing now to read of the superstitious dread with which the inhabitants looked upon the building of these first railroads. Some thought the smoke of the continual passing trains would cause a pestilence or destroy all the crops along the road. Others were afraid to ride on the cars for fear of having their breath taken away, and the people in the cities objected to the railroad being built because they feared the smoke from the engines would soil the clothes which were hung out to dry.

Many are yet living who looked upon the terrible, screeching iron monster with awe and trepidation. Mr. Nat McGee of Ivy, Albemarle, tells a joke upon himself that when he heard the train coming he jumped from his horse and got behind a tree, where he viewed it for fear of being run over. Mr. W. T. Prout, who was taking a wagon load of produce to Richmond, when he reached Gordonville heard the whistle and terrible noise of the approaching train, and he and his companions were so scared that they sprang out, leaped the fence and ran across the field to a safe distance, leaving the wagon and team to its fate, but when the train appeared it was only an engine and one coach.

The first roadbeds were formed, as has been stated, by driving piles in the ground, upon the top of which were placed wooden stringers, in which were cut a groove for the wheels to run. These were called "wooden railroads" and at a distance appeared like the elevated railroads in the cities of the present day. The honor of this invention was contested between John Hartman of Scottsville, Va., and John Williams, an engineer of Ohio, but it did not prove a bonanza to either, for the wheels were constantly bouncing out of the groove, and the piles soon after gave place to solid dirt embankments, and strap iron rails were substituted for the wooden groove. But the grading was very imperfect and uneven, which made riding on one of these primitive railroads like going over a corduroy road in a springless wagon, with the cars bouncing over these rough rails to the jingling music of the windows.—Richmond Dispatch.

A VERY CURIOUS BIRD.

The One Young Mark Twain Sprung Upon the Scientists.

Mark Twain's father was an ornithologist. He had several friends who were also enthusiasts on the subject of birds. Whenever any one of them discovered a rara avis it was the custom to have a consultation. Mark had been a witness of several of these bird inquests and had noted the delight the old men took in discussing a new found specimen. One day it occurred to him to provide the Hannibal ornithologists with a real circus in the form of a bird. He killed a crow and also a barnyard rooster. Plucking out the tail feathers of both the crow and the rooster, he substituted the rooster's tail feathers for those of the crow, producing a unique effect. When he had the specimen nicely prepared, he went to his father and, handing it to him, said:

"Here, father, is a very curious bird I shot. I thought you would be interested in it."

The old gentleman gazed upon the specimen with astonishment. That evening the ornithologists of Hannibal were assembled in Mr. Clemens' parlor. The rare specimen was put before them. The discussion was long and learned. The opinions expressed were various. One thought the bird was an offshoot of the bird of paradise family; others had equally ridiculous notions as to its ancestry. But there was one who refused to be swerved by the peculiarity of the bird's tail from the judgment that it was of the crow family.

"Why, just look here," he said, lifting the bird by its tail feathers. He got no further. The feathers came out. There was a quick closing of a door. Mr. Clemens started to leave the room.

"Gentlemen," he said, "please excuse me a few moments. I will see Samuel first and explain later."

EATING FISH.

It is not good form to ask for a second helping of fish.

It is considered extremely bad form to use a knife in dissecting fish.

A little modern fish knife, with an ingenious fork arrangement on one side, is now made.

A bit of lemon is served with broiled and baked fish, and it is in correct form to use the fingers in expressing the juice.

Potatoes are considered a proper accessory to the fish course.

Sliced cucumbers, with plain French dressing, are also served.

With a boiled fish the potatoes are also usually boiled, cut into bits or scooped out and garnished with a little melted butter and chopped parsley.

Never use the fingers to separate the bones from the eatable portion of fish. The bones must be evaded with such dexterity as one can command without other aid than such as a bit of bread held in the left hand may furnish.

Gambling.

The writer once spent a Saturday afternoon in the study of a dignitary of the church while the ecclesiastic struggled in vain to frame an argument against gambling to be presented to the congregation on the morrow. He abandoned the attempt. Far be it from a literary journal to assert powers the possession of which the professionally religious are fain to disclaim, yet with submission we even venture to believe that at least one cogent and effective argument lies against all forms of gambling—one, namely, based on the truth that wealth, great or small, is a trust and therefore may not be put in risk.

The moralist may declare that the gambler gets, or at least wants to get, something for nothing. Men will laugh. They know better. The winner gave his chance to lose for his winnings. For his losses the winner got his chance to win. But ask the speculator whether he would gamble with trust funds held by him for orphans and then suggest to him the one great truth that is seizing hold of men's conscience, the most hopeful sign in these perplexed days of social unrest, that men are trustees of all that they call their own. —Current Literature.

SATURDAY, JULY 20, 1901.

Weather.

Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday, with occasional thunder showers. Cooler in west portion.

IT was left for a democratic paper to say that "Ohio sweeps the populistic and socialistic rubbish out of the way."

LITTLE FALLS policemen are now bedecked with new shirt waist suits, and are said to be the coolest looking people in that warm town.

WE never knew exactly why it was until an exchange informed us that the only reason why a banker makes more money than a newspaper is that the banker insists on getting paid for what he does, and always gets his pay in advance.

THE Little Falls Herald editor does not relish the attention the brethren of the press have been giving him since his screed on the Declaration of Independence appeared a few days ago. He performs the crawfish act and says he didn't mean it, that it was just a little "playful irony." It is always better to appear loyal, Bro. Vassaly, even if you don't feel that way.

A MISSOURI paper is led to remark that an improved postage stamp with a rivet or tack fastener will have to be invented for the benefit of drought-stricken localities where there is not sufficient moisture to dampen the ordinary glutinous variety. It is so dry down in that country that the male portion of the many leading families never once think of drinking water.

A SPECIAL meeting of the state board of health is to be called to consider the advisability of burning the lumber camps in the northern part of the state with a view to stamping out the small pox germs before the camps are used again the coming winter. If the plan is adopted Wisconsin and Minnesota will work together on the same plan of defense against a recurrence of the epidemic. It is certain that drastic measures will be have to be used if the northwest is kept free from the disease the coming winter and every possible assistance should be given the authorities in their efforts along this line.

Bracken's Order.

Secretary Braken, of the state board of health has consulted Assistant Attorney General Donahow, relative to his power to issue a general order requiring the vaccination of children throughout the state. In the opinion of the assistant attorney general it lies withing the power of the state board to issue such an order when any infectious disease reaches the state of a general epidemic.

Dr. Bracken believes that smallpox has reached so nearly the proportions of an epidemic that such a step will be necessary to prevent its further spread. No order requiring a general vaccination has yet been issued by the secretary, but one is expected to appear within a few days.

These Are Hicks' Predictions.

Prof. Hicks says that in all probability the 25th to the 29th will constitute one of the most severe storm periods in July. The barometer will prove a safe monitor at this time. If its readings become greatly depressed in western sections, with warm southerly winds in front of the low barometric area, all storm developments should be carefully watched. Those who have no barometers may easily determine whether the conditions are favorable for severe storms, and by a common sense vigilance escape all surprise and danger, in case of tornadic and other violent storms. Heavy gales, thunder, hail and local downpour of rain may be looked for from 25th to 29th. A general and rapid change to much cooler weather will take place at that period.

Ask Jerry Howe.

Men are easily found who will blow a safe, rob a friend or any other man; cut a throat or beat a wife, steal a horse or forge a check, but why any man will consent to umpire a base ball game is yet an open proposition. —Bemidji Pioneer.

She has been giving some very successful demonstrations at M. J. Reilly's store. Mr. Reilly is the sole agent in this city for these goods.

Want Drainage.

The state drainage board, consisting of the governor, state auditor and secretary of state, met recently in the office of the governor. This meeting, like the one which preceded it, was of a preparatory nature and the board cannot yet be said to have gotten down to business. The duties of the secretary were performed yesterday by the executive clerk of the governor's office, James A. Martin.

George Ralph, of Crookston, was appointed engineer for the commission and was requested to report for duty on Saturday next. By that time, it is expected, the petitions which have been received from various parts of the state where drainage is needed will have been classified and investigated so the board may be able to determine what portion of the lands are the property of the state. Then the engineer will be instructed to make preliminary surveys and estimates of cost and when that has been done the members of the board will go over the ground personally and decide as to the location of ditches. Petition for drainage ditches have thus far been received from Norman, Beltrami, Red Lake, Rosseau, Polk, Wadena, Aitkin and several other counties.

LUMBER IS NOW THE WHOLE THING.

Brainerd Lumber Company's Business Never Better At This Time of Year.

FOUR MILLION FEET OF PINE

Sold Within a Short Space of Time--The Price Ranges Well Also.

There has hardly been a time in the history of the Brainerd Lumber Company when business was more active than it is at the present time. The company is rushed almost to a standstill and the orders now coming in will not be filled very soon.

The company has a large southern trade and the trade on finer grades of lumber from the south has been something enormous this year. Now orders are coming in from the west for heavier material, and the orders are piling up wonderfully.

Business is particularly active in all lines, but the record of sales of pine since July 1 is something marvelous. Over 4,000,000 feet of pine have been sold since the first and the sales are still continuing.

The price has been very good for a considerable amount of this lumber, most of it grading higher than usual.

CURBSTONE CHAT.

J. A. Vandycke: Just tell the boys not to forget the meeting on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

David Archibald, Bay Lake: Everything is lovely out our way. Pretty hot weather but everything is growing.

Landlord Wise: The crops are looking fine and I do not think that the hot weather has affected them any as yet.

County Attorney Alderman: I go to the lake to rest up. The past week has been pretty hard on me and I am rather glad court is over.

President J. C. Smallwood: The Labor Day celebration this year will be a hummer. All laboring men in the city whether they belong to a union or not are invited to participate.

J. C. Congdon: I would like to get upon some high place some morning and take a picture of the N. P. yards when two or three log trains are standing there. It is a great sight.

City Attorney Crowell: It is pretty severe to impose a fine on some people for violating city ordinances, but it is the only way to have the provisions of the ordinances complied with. This morning there were cattle out in the streets not in charge of herders and if it can be found that those who own cows let them out before the herder comes around they too will be prosecuted.

Our alteration and clearing sale continues all this week. All summer goods must be disposed of at some price. Wash goods at 55, 65 and 75 cents on the dollar at A. E. Moberg's.

DRAINAGE CONVENTION ENDS

Next Meeting to Be Held at Wahpeton in October.

Fargo, N. D., July 19.—The tri-state drainage convention adjourned after a number of interesting speeches had been made. Speaker Dowling of Minnesota, H. A. Mayo of Walhalla, ex-Congressman Spalding of North Dakota and other prominent men were among the speakers.

Resolutions were adopted reciting the necessity of some governmental action and petitioning congress for an appropriation for the work of draining the Red river valley and controlling the water supply at the sources to avoid disastrous floods in the future.

The proceedings were ordered published and on motion of A. E. Fenton of Amenia a resolution was adopted calling on township organizations on both sides of the river to contribute funds to assist in the proper presentation of the necessities of the case to congress.

The meeting resulted in a fuller and more definite understanding of the real conditions and of the plans necessary to prevent the floods. This proposed movement has assumed a more tangible form and has good hope of success.

The next meeting will be held at Wahpeton, N. D., not later than Oct. 15 of this year.

AT EDWARD'S CORONATION.

Suggested That Dewey With a Large Squadron Should Attend.

Washington, July 19.—The suggestion has been made by a rear admiral in high standing that Admiral Dewey should be given command of a large squadron, comprising the best types of our new ships, to be present at the coronation of King Edward VII. The navy department has not thus far taken up the question of naval representation at this event, but the suggestion concerning Admiral Dewey and a large squadron of fine ships meets with general approval among high naval officials. The ships recently ordered to the European station are not considered fair representatives of our new navy, the Albany being a foreign built ship, the Chicago one of the early products of the new navy and the Nashville a comparatively small gunboat. It is estimated that the naval pageant at the time of the coronation will bring together some of the finest ships possessed by European countries, and for that reason it is urged that the United States should be represented by some of its best ships under Admiral Dewey.

INCREASED WHEAT YIELD.

Reports on the Crop in Russia and India Received in Washington.

Washington, July 19.—The state department is in receipt of interesting reports concerning the wheat crops of Russia and India. According to a report from Consul General Holloway at St. Petersburg there are good reasons to hope that the wheat harvest of 1901 will exceed that of 1900. The spring wheat is more promising than the winter crop, the latter having suffered heavily from various causes. However, it is stated that the loss in the winter crop will be balanced by the amount of spring wheat sown.

Consul General Patterson at Calcutta states that the wheat yield for India as a whole is estimated at about 6,580,000 tons, about 8 1-2 per cent more than the decennial average. The export of wheat from India this year, the consul general says, probably will be greatly increased and may reach from 10,000,000 to 15,000,000 bushels.

LONDON IS DISMAYED.

Has the Hottest Weather Experienced in Eleven Years.

London, July 19.—Great Britain has had no such weather as this in 11 years. The temperature was 98 in the shade at Southsea and Billingsboro, Lincolnshire. Lower temperatures were recorded at other points. The torrid sun caused the asphalt to soften and the tarry wood paving to bubble. The number of deaths and sun strokes has not been reckoned up, but these and the attempts at suicide in consequence of the heat are described as numerous.

Soldiers on duty suffered greatly, two dropping dead. The war office is relaxing regulations in some respects, substituting night for day. The meteorological office holds out no prospects of relief and London is dismayed at the prospects of another day of roasting.

UNQUALIFIED DENIAL.

Lamont Says He Is Not Slated for Mellen's Place.

New York, July 19.—Daniel S. Lamont, vice president of the Northern Pacific railway, said that he wished to deny unqualifiedly the report from Chicago that he would be selected as the president of the Northern Pacific railway to succeed President Mellen.

"The report is without foundation," said Mr. Lamont. "I am not aware that Mr. Mellen, whose efficiency is conceded and whose success is a matter of record, has any idea of retiring and I am positive that under no circumstances would I take the place."

A Fortune of Forty Millions.

Atlanta, Ga., July 19.—An Australian fortune of $40,000,000 is to be divided among the heirs of the late Josiah Tyson residing in Georgia and Alabama. The law firm of Hoke Smith & H. C. Peeples has communicated with the proper authorities at Melbourne and learned that the information as to the inheritance received here is correct.

THE EPWORTH LEAGUE.

Fifth International Convention Opens at San Francisco.

San Francisco, July 19.—The fifth international convention of the Epworth League was opened under the most auspicious conditions. The weather was ideal and the attendance equaled the most sanguine expectations.

[illegible] at the Mechanics' Pavilion, where the principal exercises of the day were held, was one not soon to be forgotten. Never in its history has the spacious interior of the Pavilion presented a more impressive spectacle and every unsightly inch of wall was hid by tasteful decorations.

When the convention proper was called to order by Rev. Thomas Filben of Pacific Grove not a blank space was to be seen from the grand organ to the farthest gallery. After a service of song, led by Robert Husband and participated in by the chorus of 2,000 voices, General Secretary Rev. J. F. Berry read a number of congratulatory messages received from prominent men throughout the Union. All were received with cheers, those from McKinley and Roosevelt arousing the audience to much enthusiasm.

The remarks of Governor Gage, Mayor Phelan, Bishop Hamilton, Bishop Joyce and the other speakers of the day also evoked consistent applause. It is already assured that the convention is destined to be one of the best in the annals of the Epworth League.

APPEALS FOR CUTICLE.

Epworth Leaguers Asked to Aid in Two Cases of Skin Grafting.

Kansas City, July 19.—Epworth Leaguers over the country will be appealed to to furnish enough cuticle for grafting over the burns of two victims of the recent Chicago and Alton wreck. It is announced that the burns of Miss Julia M. Hayslip, the 24-year-old daughter of a wealthy Chenoa, Ills., farmer, had not responded to the treatment as expected and that to save her from carrying a hideous scar all her life new skin must be grafted. It is stated a similar effort will be necessary in the case of Miss Zola Harry, 15 years old, of Hoopstown, Ills. Miss Hayslip and Miss Harry were on their way to San Francisco to attend the national convention of the Epworth League when they were caught in the wreck near Norton, Mo., and scalded so badly that their lives were despaired of for several days. The operations of grafting must be performed within a week and it has been decided to appeal to the Leaguers who will return home through Kansas City from the Pacific coast about that time to furnish the required cuticle.

FLED TO THE MOUNTAINS.

Negro Kills Two Well Known White Men at Dinges, W. Va.

Dinges, W. Va., July 19.—Henry Alexander, colored, shot and killed Philip Bennett and Benjamin Carter, both white, here during the afternoon and then fled to the mountains, where he was pursued by a posse. Alexander handed Bennett a quarter and requested him to change it and Bennett threw the money into the street. This enraged Alexander, who picked up the money and started to walk away when he suddenly wheeled about and opened fire, killing both Bennett and Carter. Alexander fled, but it was rumored here that he had been located in the hills four miles south of here by officers and taken to Williams by a circuitous route to avoid lynching. Both the dead men were well known and indignation runs high.

RAINFALL CONTINUES.

Drouth Completely Broken in Many Parts of the Southwest.

Kansas City, July 19.—Further good rains fell after midnight and during the day in many points in the Southwest and still more is predicted. The area covered was principally in Southwestern Missouri, Central and Southern Kansas and in the central part of the Indian and Oklahoma country. The heaviest fall was in Sedgwick county, in which Wichita is situated, where nearly two inches and a half of water fell. The rains have increased the prospects of half a crop of corn and will help pasturage. However, but little rain is reported in Northern and Western Kansas and some points are still suffering a drouth that extends back from four to eight weeks.

MONGOLIA IS NOW RUSSIAN.

Chinese Town of Urga Garrisoned by the Czar's Soldiers.

London, July 19.—"Mongolia is now Russian," says a dispatch to The Daily Express from St. Petersburg. "Urga, a Chinese frontier station on the road to Peking, about 200 miles south of Kikhta, has been fortified and garrisoned by Russian infantry and Cossacks. Surveying parties escorted by troops have penetrated as far as the edge of the great desert to determine the route of a direct railway to Peking across the desert and the point where it will join the Mid-Siberian railway extension now being constructed around the south end of Lake Bakal."

THE RAILROAD SCARE

ODD EFFECTS OF THE FIRST SIGHT OF A LOCOMOTIVE.

Some of the People of the South Hid Behind Trees In 1833, When the Iron Horse Went By—The Country's Earliest Railroad.

America cannot lay claim to the first locomotive or the first railroad. That great honor lies with England. Yet Yankee genius was not very far behind her, for, when George Stephenson launched his first real locomotive, the Rocket, on the Liverpool and Manchester road in 1829, the first spike had been driven on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad, July 4, 1828, by Charles Carroll of Carrollton, the last surviving signer of the Declaration of Independence. This was the first road started in the United States, and in 1830 it had reached Ellicott Mills, 13 miles from Baltimore.

But the south can claim the honor of completing the longest railroad in the world at that date, being the old Charleston and Hamburg road, now a part of the South Carolina and Georgia system, which was begun in 1830, and by October, 1833, it had 137 miles of track in operation. In a letter from Mr. Samuel C. Clarke of Georgia, a kinsman of the writer, who attained the extreme age of 91 years and who had seen the beginning and the completion of this road, he thus gives his experience upon first sight of a locomotive:

"One day while going down to Charleston with a party of gentlemen to attend the races as we approached the city we saw in the distance the new railroad, finished some 10 or 12 miles out of Charleston. It was built upon piles, longer or short, according to the nature of the ground. Sometimes in crossing a ravine the rails were 20 feet from the surface. Our track ran near this elevated road, and soon a horrid shriek as from 20 panthers was heard in the woods. By this time we were nervous. Elephants and lions we had heard of, and some of us had seen them, but what monster was this whose screams we heard? Presently it came in sight, flying aloft through the air and breathing fire and smoke, and our frightened steeds became unmanageable, and in fact I think that some of our party were as badly frightened as their horses. If any of my readers are old enough to remember the introduction of locomotives and how they felt at first sight of them, they will perhaps understand our sensations that day in the pine woods.

"A mile or two farther on we came to a broken wagon by the side of the road, and near it sat a Georgia cracker smoking his pipe. On being asked what was his trouble he replied, 'Well, stranger, I've often heern tell of nullification, and now I reckon I've saw it for true.'"

It is somewhat amusing now to read of the superstitious dread with which the inhabitants looked upon the building of these first railroads. Some thought the smoke of the continual passing trains would cause a pestilence or destroy all the crops along the road. Others were afraid to ride on the cars for fear of having their breath taken away, and the people in the cities objected to the railroad being built because they feared the smoke from the engines would soil the clothes which were hung out to dry.

Many are yet living who looked upon the terrible, screeching iron monster with awe and trepidation. Mr. Nat McGee of Ivy, Albemarle, tells a joke upon himself that when he heard the train coming he jumped from his horse and got behind a tree, where he viewed it for fear of being run over. Mr. W. T. Prout, who was taking a wagon load of produce to Richmond, when he reached Gordonville heard the whistle and terrible noise of the approaching train, and he and his companions were so scared that they sprang out, leaped the fence and ran across the field to a safe distance, leaving the wagon and team to its fate, but when the train appeared it was only an engine and one coach.

The first roadbeds were formed, as has been stated, by driving piles in the ground, upon the top of which were placed wooden stringers, in which were cut a groove for the wheels to run. These were called "wooden railroads" and at a distance appeared like the elevated railroads in the cities of the present day. The honor of this invention was contested between John Hartman of Scottsville, Va., and John Williams, an engineer of Ohio, but it did not prove a bonanza to either, for the wheels were constantly bouncing out of the groove, and the piles soon after gave place to solid dirt embankments, and strap iron rails were substituted for the wooden groove. But the grading was very imperfect and uneven, which made riding on one of these primitive railroads like going over a corduroy road in a springless wagon with the cars bouncing over these rough rails to the jingling music of the windows.—Richmond Dispatch.

A VERY CURIOUS BIRD.

The One Young Mark Twain Sprung Upon the Scientists.

Mark Twain's father was an ornithologist. He had several friends who were also enthusiasts on the subject of birds. Whenever any one of them discovered a rara avis it was the custom to have a consultation. Mark had been a witness of several of these bird inquests and had noted the delight the old men took in discussing a new found specimen. One day it occurred to him to provide the Hannibal ornithologists with a real circus in the form of a bird. He killed a crow and also a barnyard rooster. Plucking out the tail feathers of both the crow and the rooster, he substituted the rooster's tail feathers for those of the crow, producing a unique effect. When he had the specimen nicely prepared, he went to his father and, handing it to him, said:

"Here, father, is a very curious bird I shot. I thought you would be interested in it."

The old gentleman gazed upon the specimen with astonishment. That evening the ornithologists of Hannibal were assembled in Mr. Clemens' parlor. The rare specimen was put before them. The discussion was long and learned. The opinions expressed were various. One thought the bird was an offshoot of the bird of paradise family; others had equally ridiculous notions as to its ancestry. But there was one who refused to be swerved by the peculiarity of the bird's tail from the judgment that it was of the crow family.

"Why, just look here," he said, lifting the bird by its tail feathers. He got no further. The feathers came out. There was a quick closing of a door. Mr. Clemens started to leave the room.

"Gentlemen," he said, "please excuse me a few moments. I will see Samuel first and explain later."

EATING FISH.

It is not good form to ask for a second helping of fish.

It is considered extremely bad form to use a knife in dissecting fish.

A little modern fish knife, with an ingenious fork arrangement on one side, is now made.

A bit of lemon is served with broiled and baked fish, and it is in correct form to use the fingers in expressing the juice.

Potatoes are considered a proper accessory to the fish course.

Sliced cucumbers, with plain French dressing, are also served.

With a boiled fish the potatoes are also usually boiled, cut into bits or scooped out and garnished with a little melted butter and chopped parsley.

Never use the fingers to separate the bones from the eatable portion of fish. The bones must be evaded with such dexterity as one can command without other aid than such as a bit of bread held in the left hand may furnish.

Gambling.

The writer once spent a Saturday afternoon in the study of a dignitary of the church while the ecclesiastic struggled in vain to frame an argument against gambling to be presented to the congregation on the morrow. He abandoned the attempt. Far be it from a literary journal to assert powers the possession of which the professionally religious are fain to disclaim, yet with submission we even venture to believe that at least one cogent and effective argument lies against all forms of gambling—one, namely, based on the truth that wealth, great or small, is a trust and therefore may not be put in risk.

The moralist may declare that the gambler gets, or at least wants to get, something for nothing. Men will laugh. They know better. The winner gave his chance to lose for his winnings. For his losses the winner got his chance to win. But ask the speculator whether he would gamble with trust funds held by him for orphans and then suggest to him the one great truth that is seizing hold of men's conscience, the most hopeful sign in these perplexed days of social unrest, that men are trustees of all that they call their own. —Current Literature.

BAD BLOW FOR FIREMEN

A NUMBER OF MINES IN THE ANTHRACITE DISTRICT RESUME OPERATIONS.

MINERS ANXIOUS TO RETURN

Heads of the Union Would Have a Hard Time Keeping Them From Work—No Indications of a Settlement in the Sheet Steel Workers' Strike—Men Well Satisfied With the Showing Made.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 20.—More mines were in operation and more coal was hoisted in the Wyoming valley than any day since the stationary firemen's strike began. Despite any action that may be taken by the officers of the United Mine Workers as an association the fact cannot be denied but that the United Mine Workers as a body are anxious to get back to work. How long they can be kept out by the executive heads is extremely problematical. The gains made by the companies were as follows: The Susquehanna Coal company, operating all the collierics at Nentuck, had more men at work tha any previous day and their output was large. The firemen at the Avondale mine of the Lackawanna company went back to their old posts and work at the mine has been resumed. No. 8 colliery of the Erie company at Pittston resumed work during the morning, 800 men being employed there. The Pettibone colliery of the Lackawanna company found itself able to start up at noon and operations were resumed. No attempt at work was done at any of the mines of the Delaware and Hudson or the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre company. In the face of this change in the situation the strikers are by no means discouraged. In an official statement issued during the evening it is said th in the upper anthracite region the situation remains the same, with strong indications of increased wages for the firemen and there is a greater number of mines idle than ever.

NOT CHANGED MATERIALLY.

No Settlement of the Amalgamated Strike in Sight Yet.

Pittsburg, July 20.—The strike situation is not materially changed, although many rumors are in the air to the effect that a settlement of the troubles is imminent, but none of these reports have been verified and the conclusion reached is that no settlement is in sight.

At the offices of the Carnegie company and at the headquarters of the Manufacturers the usual silence is preserved concerning the condition of business or the status of the strike.

President Shaffer of the Amalgamated Association, however, expresses his entire satisfaction with the progress of the battle and says the workers have gained steadily, while the manufacturers have lost continually since last Monday. He says up to the present time the Amalgamat forces contemplate no change in their programme, being perfectly satisfied with the showing their people have made.

AFFECTS SEVEN THOUSAND.

Southwestern Coal Miners Submit a Scale to the Operators.

Kansas City, July 20.—Representatives of the coal miners of district 25, which comprises all the sub-districts of Missouri, besides Leavenworth county, Kan., through John Mitchell, national president, have submitted a blanket scale of wages for miners and day laborers about the mines to the operators, with whom they have been in conference. Seven thousand men will be affected if a strike shall be called in this district.

Negroes to Take Strikers' Places.

New Orleans, July 20.—Two men have come here from Pittsburg to get negro labor to take the places of strikers in the steel mills of the United States Steel corporation. They secured 50 men and had reports from similar agents in Anniston and Bessemer, Ala., that they had secured 40 men.

Two More Sign the Scale.

Chicago, July 20.—The striking iron molders have added two more firms to the list of those that signed the union agreement for an advance in wages to $3 a day. This makes 13 firms that have signed and about 300 strikers who have returned to work, leaving 800 still idle.

CONSUL GENERAL IS DEAD.

Represented His British Majesty's Government on the Pacific Coast.

San Francisco, July 20.—W. Clayton Pickersgill, H. B. M., consul general for the Pacific coast states and territories, died in a sanitarium in Alameda, to which he was conveyed on Sunday last from his summer residence in the Santa Cruz mountains.

Mr. Pickersgill had been seriously ill for some months past, the result of a long residence in the malarial regions of Africa as consular representative of the British government.

Dead Number Twenty-two.

Kansas City, July 20.—O. D. Sanborn, the Chenoa, Ills., banker who was terribly scalded in the Alton wreck last week, died at St. Joseph's hospital, being the 22d victim to succumb.

Salmon Fishers' Strike Ended.

Vancouver, B. C., July 20.—The strike of the salmon fishermen against the Fraser river canners has been adjusted, the Vancouver board of trade having acted as mediator. It has been agreed that the fishermen shall receive 12 1-2 cents per fish for one quarter of the entire pack and 10 cents for the remainder of the pack. The union men will begin fishing on Sunday night.

The Word "Christian" Stays.

Richmond, Va., July 20.—The word "Christian" stays in the bill of rights in the Virginia constitution as far as the committee is concerned. By a vote of 7 to 5 it decided to retain the original language.

NORTHCOTT'S APPOINTMENTS.

State Deputies for the Modern Woodmen Named.

Springfield, Ills., July 20.—Lieutenant Governor Northcott, head consul of the Modern Woodmen of America, announces the appointment of the following state deputies: Those newly appointed are: California, D. I. Thornton; Maryland, John F. Harris; Iowa, George N. Frink; Delaware, George H. Russell; Nevada, L. H. Addis, Utah, L. Pierce; New Jersey, E. H. Young; Maine, F. W. Stevens.

Among those reappointed are: Colorado, L. H. Turley; Idaho, T. W. Bartley; Michigan, C. J. Byrns; Minnesota, W. H. Dawson; Nebraska, Ralph E. Johnson; South Dakota, J. H. Gallagher; Wisconsin, B. F. Keeler.

The board of directors has appointed two general attorneys and the Mississippi river will be the dividing line of their territories. The general attorneys appointed are Hon. J. G. Johns of Kansas, former head attorney, and J. H. White of Illinois.

SCORES OF SHEEP DROWN.

Cloudburst Floods Harrold, S. D., and Does Heavy Damage.

Huron, S. D., July 20.—News comes from Harrold, 70 miles west of here, of a cloudburst there, flooding the town and doing much damage. Three inches of water fell in 15 minutes.

Ranchmen had scores of sheep drowned, many cattle were killed by lightning and some large herds were stampeded. Fields of small grain and corn were wiped out and the roadbed of the Chicago and Northwestern railway was damaged. No hail and only a little wind accompanied the storm.

Unknown Negro Lynched.

Crowley, La., July 20.—An unknown negro was lynched here during the day. An officer accosted him to learn his business when he was fired upon by the negro, who then fled. The man escaped into the woods, but was finally caught and taken back to jail, where the crowd captured him and strung him up.

Great Uneasiness at Tien Tsin.

Tien Tsin, July 20.—Great uneasiness is felt here following the resumption by the Chinese of the partial control of the city. Natives are cutting the telegraph line outside of Tien Tsin and fears of further violence are entertained.

PROBLEM FOR YERKES

INTERNAL REVENUE COMMISSIONER TRYING TO DEVISE A SCHEME.

PRODUCTS OF PORTO RICO

After President's Proclamation Cigars, Cigarettes, Rum, Etc., Will Pay No Duty—How to Collect Internal Revenue Taxes Puts the Government in a Quandary—No Official Authorized to Sell Stamps on the Island.

Washington, July 20.—Commissioner Yerkes of the internal revenue bureau at present is busily engaged in devising a scheme for the collection of the internal revenue tax on cigars, cigarettes, rum, etc., brought into the United States from Porto Rico after the president issues his proclamation declaring that free trade exists between the two countries. Under the existing laws internal revenue stamps can be purchased only from collectors of internal revenue or their deputies, and, as Porto Rico is not a collection district, no one there is authorized to sell stamps and hence the difficulty in arranging a system by which exporters may procure stamps without inconvenience. Another difficulty is encountered in the fact that cigars brought in from Porto Rico, not being subject to customs duties, may be brought in at any point or port in the United States, whether it be a port of entry or not, and the danger that large quantities of goods may be smuggled into this country is very great. It is probable that congress will be asked at the next session to make Porto Rico an internal revenue collection district or that it be annexed to some one of the collection districts in the Southern states. Until this is done it is expected that an effective administration of the laws will be accomplished only with some difficulty.

MUST NOT ACT AS AGENTS.

Postmaster General Issues Order to Rural Letter Carriers.

Washington, July 20.—Postmaster General Smith has issued the following order:

"Hereafter rural letter carriers shall not act as agents, salesmen or solicitors for express companies, letter box manufacturers, wholesale houses, corporations or firms, nor engage in any business or avocation which would interfere with the proper performance of their official duties. The may act as news agents, sell newspapers or periodicals on their own account, or accept and collect subscriptions for the same. When carriers receive newspapers or periodicals by express or by other means outside the mails to be sold or delivered on their routes, they, as news agents, will be required to pay postage on such matter at the second class rate of postage (1 cent per pound), except in the case of county papers which are mailed free to subscribers residing in the county in which they are published.

"This order is not intended to prohibit carriers from performing various private commissions for the accommodation of the patrons on their routes so long as it does not interfere with the regular and prompt performance of their duty."

GIRLS OFFERED FOR SALE.

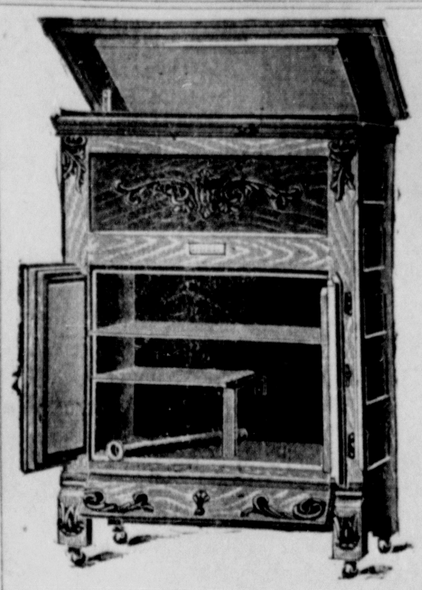

Hundreds Bought by the Chinese Relief Commissioners.

New York, July 20.—Chow Tze, Chinese consul in New York, has forwarded to The Christian Herald the reports of the native commissioners appointed by the governor of Shan Si to assist in the work of relief. These reports detail the work of the relief committee through Shan Si. Near Michi City they saw refugees eating tree leaves and apparently enjoying them. Later they saw hungry birds in the woods fighting for dead bodies. In hundreds of instances young girls who had been sold were purchased by the relief commissioners and sent to the relief camps and their families notified. On one day, May 18, 67 girls were so secured. At places some persons engaged in the traffic were seized and put to death in iron cages, but the authorities seemed powerless to put a stop to the practice.

THE NEW ARMORED CRUISERS.

Naval Board of Construction Considering Plans.

Washington, July 20.—Plans for the new armored cruisers which are expected to be the crack ships of the navy were before the naval board of construction during the day. The plans show a ship of 11,000 tons displacement, 440 feet in length, with 5-inch belt armament. The battery consists of 8-inch guns in turrets, 6-inch guns on broadside and auxiliary batteries of 3-inch rapid firers. As a result of the discussion it is probable that the chief constructor will prepare alternative plans showing somewhat larger cruisers and embodying some changes suggested.

St. Paul, July 20.—Conservative estimates place the number of men required to harvest and thresh this year's crop in Minnesota, North and South Dakota at from 75,000 to 80,000. This estimate places the requirements of North Dakota and Minnesota at 30,000 each and the number for South Dakota at 15,000 or 20,000.

PLEASURE CRAFT CAPSIZES.

Philadelphia Yacht Wrecked on Long Island Sound.

New Haven, Conn., July 20.—Five persons were drowned in the sound off here by the capsizing of the yawl-rigged yacht Venitzia of Philadelphia, five miles east of Sands Point, near the New York and Connecticut line. Two only of those on board the yacht were rescued. The drowned are:

Arthur C. Colburn, owner of the yacht, and his daughters, Ida and Annette Colburn, of Philadelphia; Captain Flint, of Brooklyn, N. Y., master of the yacht, and a sailor, name unknown.

Others on board the ill-fated craft, Mrs. Walter T. Sprankle of Philadelphia and daughter of the owner of the yacht, and the steward, James Standbridge of New York, were rescued by the tug Gertrude after clinging for two hours to the bottom of a capsized boat.

The yacht left Delaware City Monday morning, bound for Newport. Thursday morning it started from Thompsonville, S. I., the intention being to put into Black Rock, Conn., and take on board Mrs. Sprankle's husband, who was expected there.

GET DOWN TO BUSINESS.

Epworth Leaguers Devote Entire Day to Routine Matters.

San Francisco, July 20.—The delegates to the International Epworth League have settled down to business. The entire day was devoted to routine matters, the missionary feature of the religious effort being dwelt upon at length by many of the speakers. Prayer services were held at sunrise in several churches, all of which were largely attended. Promptly at 9 o'clock convention meetings were called to order in the Mechanics' Pavilion and the Alhambra theater, and in both places the addresses delivered were listened to with marked attention. At noon prayer meetings for business men were held in the rooms of the chamber of commerce and the court of the Palace hotel and many prominent citizens were among the worshippers.

In the afternoon overflow meetings were held in the Metropolitan Temple. All of the sessions were characterized by the earnest spirit of religious enthusiasm which has marked all the proceedings since the assembling of the convention.

BRAINED THE FOREMAN.

Fearful Act of a Convict at the Jeffersonville (Ind.) Prison.

Jeffersonville, Ind., July 20.—E. S. McHale, a foreman in the shoe department of the state prison here, was fatally beaten by Lee Kelly, a convict. Kelly brained the foreman with a piece of shafting while women visitors at the prison looked on. The women were thrown into a panic. McHale was taken to Louisville, where a dangerous operation was performed in a final effort to save his life.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING

FIERCE ELECTRIC STORM RESULTS IN FOUR DEATHS IN PENNSYLVANIA.

SEVEN OTEERS ARE INJURED

Had Just Entered Some Buildings to Escape the Rain—The Pleasure Yacht Venitzia Capsizes on Long Island Sound and Five of Her Occupants Are Drowned—Two Are Rescued.

Grove City, Pa., July 20.—A fierce electric storm here resulted in four deaths and severe injury to seven persons. A section crew on the Bessemer and Lake Erie railroad were returning home from work when the storm came up. They left the railroad track and hastened to a deserted house at the Pinchalong mine for shelter. Hardly had they reached the shelter of the place when the house was struck by lightning. Luther Campbell, foreman of the crew, and Howard Cornelius, one of the section men, were both struck by one bo and instantly killed. Two others were also struck and rendered unconscious for eight hours from the same flash and all are in a critical condition.

During the storm a house occupied by a gang of Italians, working on the railroad a few miles south of this place, was struck. There were several men crowded into the little cabin and the house was almost totally destroyed. Anton Daranski and Michael Zaccagai were instantly killed and five of their companions were severely shocked.

DISAPPROVED BY LONG.

MacLay's Naval History Cannot Be Used as a Text Book.

Washington, July 20.—The secretary of the navy has decided that the third volume of MacLay's history of the Spanish-American war shall not be used as a text book at the naval academy unless the obnoxious language it contains in characterizing the action of Rear Admiral Schley shall be eliminated. The secretary says that it would be manifestly improper to have a history containing such intemperate language as a text book for the cadets. He will inform both Commander Wainwright, who is in command of the naval academy, and Mr. MacLay, the author of the history, of his decision.

In this connection the secretary says that the proofs of the entire volume were not submitted to him by the historian. He received only the proofs of the third chapter, that relating to the mobilization of the fleets, which contained a summary of the orders which he, as secretary of the navy, had issued in making the naval preparations for the war. That chapter was satisfactory and he returned it to Mr. MacLay with an indentation of his approval. He says he never saw the account of the battle of Santiago and the criticisms of Rear Admiral Schley until after the book was published. Mr. MacLay was appointed to his present position in the New York navy yard August 23, 1900, having been transferred from the light house service.

HON. J. ADAM BEDE ON EDUCATON.

A Good Audience Greets the Gentleman at The First M. E. Church.

HIS ADVICE TO SCHOOL MARMS.

Opening Remarks Laudatory of of Minnesota's Educational Advantages.

The Hon. J. Adam Bede, one of the best known public men in the state and a lecturer of renown, was heard at the First M. E. church in this city last night to good advantage. The weather was very warm, but notwithstanding the high temperature, there was a good attendance.

Mr. Bede had no particular subject but his talk was along educational lines. He opened with some remarks laudatory of the state of Minnesota and said that the state is ahead of any other in the perfection of its educational organization and in the highness of rank and standard. The pride of our country is its fine schools and churches. Because they are free they are not always sought. Other features hold girls. Thus, Mr. Bede said, the solution of the problem of keeping the children in city schools is clear, but it is yet to be solved in the rural schools. It is being solved in the east by the centralizing or township system. This idea of centralization is also growing popular in the west.

He said that education is another thing now from what it was 50 years ago. Kindergarten work as conducted is not forcing knowledge upon a child, but the children reach for it. The "boarding around" feature of bygone times still leaves its lessons to the rural teacher. It is well for her to know the home environment of each child, for thus she learns the diplomacy of getting along with folks. The teacher must be careful of her personal appearance and of her actions and manners. She must be able to build character. The impressions that the teacher makes is unconscious to herself. Children are susceptible. Often they look up to the teacher as one above their parents. They drink in her thoughts and adopt her habits and manners. Mr. Bede said: "It takes an angel to teach children, for of such is the kingdom of heaven, so we let our wives teach them."

To have better teachers they must be given better pay, longer contracts or engagements. With a twinkle in his eye, Mr. Bede said that he meant teaching engagements and advised that a young lady should not teach long enough to get cranky, but should get married before that time.

He said that children must be blessed with good things. The teacher must adapt herself to her pupils. Girls give the least trouble. She is the new woman—"a burst of sunshine." The boy is an enigma. There is a period in a boy's life that he doesn't know what he is on earth for. He has to have his first fight—one, only, if he gets licked. There are kings among children, but they must be taught the rights of others and they can only learn right and wrong by experience. So, there is always the difficult task of making citizens for our great republic and these peculiarities have ever been with us since.

He said that the teacher needs alertness and an interest in all that goes on about her; should identify herself with her surroundings and take a common interest in current affairs. A gentle voice is an imperative requirement.

He especially urged more attention to the more thorough teaching of our own language. There is great beauty in the English language which passes unnoticed, because it is common, but our attention is always called to beauty in Latin or Greek. This can be transplanted to the English language. He recited Field's "Little Boy Blue" and gave a passage from Blaine's eulogy on Garfield and said that if such productions should be dug up from buried cities we would acknowledge the beauty in the language.

Pupils mistake the meaning of words. He gave the following examples of errors:

One said a demagogue was a vessel for beer and other liquids; ammonia was a food for the gods; capillary was mistaken for caterpillar; equestrian, one who asks questions; a mercenary, one who feels for others; exports are the things that are paid for; imports, those that are not; optimist, an eye doctor, and pessimist a corn doctor. One said the body was made up of avaricious tissue. Another made the statement that a girl acted with discretion at a perennial time instead of critical time. Thus it is clear that more attention should be given to language study.

He then called attention to the value of self improvement, the study of a few masterpieces, and the value of the sciences. Sciences are the experience of the past that teach what is to come in the future. The world cannot be maintained without them.

CAUSE FOR ACTION.

Minnesota Lumbermen Have Refused To Comply With Ruling of The Interior Department.

There is likely to be considerable controversy in this state over the ruling recently made by the interior department in regard to the assessment imposed on green white pine.

A Washington dispatch says:

"The Minnesota lumbermen have refused point blank to comply with the ruling of the interior department imposing an assessment of $12 per thousand for green white pine which was found among the dead and down logs. As a result suit will be brought, and United States District Attorney Evans will be instructed on a course of action. Mr. Evans will be assisted by special counsel, and it is quite probable that one of the assistant attorneys from Washington may go out to the field of operations.

There is, of course, a chance for a settlement, but the department seems to be firm in insisting on the price fixed. Lumbermen claim it is an exorbitant and outrageous figure, but Indian Commissioner Jones says it is not too high for a tresspass case."

Accepts Position As Wiper.

William Simon Bonga, who was recently married in this city to Miss Ida L. Hemile, receives the following send off by the Minneapolis Tribune:

"A full-blood Chippewa Indian lad 18 years old, became a member of the Great Northern shop force in St. Paul, when the whistle blew at 7:15 o'clock this morning. He will begin to apply the knowledge he has stored up in the seven years course at the Flandrau, (S. D.) Indian school to the task of making a name in the world, as an engine wiper.

Simon Bonga was born on the Leech Lake Indian reservation. He is the son of William Bonga, a well known Chippewa interpreter. He graduated less than two weeks ago from the government school, taking high honors.

He reached St. Paul yesterday from the reservation, applied to Supt. Deveraux at the shops for a job, and he began work today with the intention of becoming a locomotive engineer, and after that a full fledged railway official."

LABORING MEN WILL CELEBRATE.

Labor Day Will be Appropriately Observed in Brainerd This Year.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING HELD.

Committees Appointed and All Laborers Whether Union Men or Not Invited.

There was an enthusiastic meeting of the laboring men of the city last evening in the Trades and Labor Assembly hall and it was unanimously decided to celebrate Labor Day, Monday, September 2.

President Smallwood presided at the meeting and the matter of a celebration was thoroughly discussed.

The celebration this year will be conducted on a larger and grander scale than ever before. Those present last evening want it distinctly understood that the celebration is not one for those who belong to unions alone, but for all laboring men in whatever capacity. It is their day and the celebration is a general one for laboring men. The events of the day will be announced in a short time and the matter will be thoroughly advertised.

The following committee was appointed on finances: Hon. A. F. Ferris, chairman; J. T. Sanborn, S. R. Adair, and George E. Gardner.

A committee consisting of Messrs Frank G. Hall, Alex McCarthy and Richard Isle was appointed to secure the band for the celebration. They were instructed to report on the matter at the next regular meeting.

BELL-VINCENT.

Pretty Wedding Occured in this City Last Night, Two Minneapolis Parties Being Principals.

Last night at 8 oclock Mr. T. R. Bell and Miss Myrtle Vincent, both of Minneapolis, were united in marriage, and it was one of the prettiest little weddings solemnized for sometime.

The bride was attired in a gown of white organdie and she was attended by Miss Maude Harrison, maid of honor. The best man was Frank Bell, of Minneapolis, brother of the groom.

After the wedding ceremony the young couple with the bridal party partook of a wedding dinner at the Palace hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Bell left last night for a short wedding tour in the east. They expect to return to Brainerd to make their future home.

Wants Son Pardoned.

The father of George W. Wolf, the young man from Brainerd who was convicted of cutting government timber and who was sentenced to three months in jail and to pay a fine of $900, arrived in the city yesterday, and he will make an effort to have his son pardoned by President McKinley.

Mr. Wolf called at the office of the United States district attorney, where he held a consultation with Mr. Purdy, and he asserted that he can produce evidence that will establish the innocence of his son. He claims that the timber was cut by two men who are now at large, and he will prepare affidavits to this effect which will be forwarded to Washington.—St. Paul Globe.

THE GAME TOMORROW.

One of the Best Games of the Season will be Played at Swartz Driving Park Tomorrow Afternoon.

The great game of the season, in fact one of the warmest, will be played tomorrow afternoon at Swartz driving park between the local team and the team from Aitkin which played in this city last Sunday.

The local team has been greatly strengthened and the fact that tomorrow will be the first occasion upon which the new suits of the Brainerd team will be worn, ought to be a drawing card. There will be ample provision for everyone to go to the park who want to see the game.

The members of the team met last evening and elected Ed. Dressen captain of the team. The team has been out doing some practice work this week and there should be a fine game. The Aitkin team is a good team, and they play ball all the time and the boys have no walkaway, but with a good attendance and some encouragement from the grand stand, Brainerd is sure to win.

The Brainerd band will be out tomorrow for the first time since the reorganization and both teams will parade the streets in the afternoon before the game with the band.

The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock and the rigs will leave the corner of Sixth and Front streets in ample time to get to the grounds. There will be plenty of accommodation for transportation tomorrow.

Just to show the Brainerd club that the trick of defeating them by a score of 6 to 3, at Verndale, could be repeated, the Millers whispered to them over the wires to come to Perham, Sunday, and watch closely, to see if they could catch on how it was done Of course they did'nt catch on, as the score of 6 to 2 will show that the Millers did the trick, even neater than before. Another large crowd saw the game and "encouraged" the Millers to victory.—Perham Bulletin.

Say, you fellow over there, don't you know that the Brainerd team who played you Sunday was only the second team?

TERM CLOSES.

The Work of The July Term of The District Court is Completed Yesterday Afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon the work of the district court for the general July term was completed, the case of the First M. E. church vs. J. N. Beviers being the last case tried on the calendar. It has been a rather busy term and considerable business has been transacted.

The above case resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $55. This virtually cuts the bill in two. Beviers contract was something like $110, and according to the jury there was some defect in the plant which he put in.

From Cass Lake.

The election held on Tuesday at Cass Lake for the purpose of voting on the proposition of issuing negotiable certificates of the village in the sum of $10,000 with which to construct a sewer system on certain designated streets of the village and to pay the outstanding indebtedness of the village, resulted in the defeat of the proposition. A very small vote was cast—only 130—seventy-five being in favor of the proposition, and fifty-four against it, and one ballot thrown out on account of ineligibility.

An effort will be made by the school board of Independent School District No. 3 to have embraced within the district that portion of Cass Lake which is located on the reservation, section 16. As at present constituted the district embraces only the organized portion of the village, and a portion of the settlement in the vicinity of the Glenmont sawmill, which is located on an allotment on the north half of section 15. C. E. Leeman, one of the directors of the board, will go to Walker on Friday to consult with the board of county commissioners regarding the matter.

Estrayed.

From my enclosure on Sec. 9, T. 134, R. 28, on Long Lake north, a bunch of young stock branded on left hip with letter "P". Reward for information leading to their recovery. C. N. PARKER.

BAD BLOW FOR FIREMEN

A NUMBER OF MINES IN THE ANTHRACITE DISTRICT RESUME OPERATIONS.

MINERS ANXIOUS TO RETURN

Heads of the Union Would Have a Hard Time Keeping Them From Work—No Indications of a Settlement in the Sheet Steel Workers' Strike—Men Well Satisfied With the Showing Made.

Wilkesbarre, Pa., July 20.—More mines were in operation and more coal was hoisted in the Wyoming valley than any day since the stationary firemen's strike began. Despite any action that may be taken by the officers of the United Mine Workers as an association the fact cannot be denied but that the United Mine Workers as a body are anxious to get back to work. How long they can be kept out by the executive heads is extremely problematical. The gains made by the companies were as follows: The Susquehanna Coal company, operating all the collierics at Nentuck, had more men at work ths any previous day and their output was large. The firemen at the Avondale mine of the Lackawanna company went back to their old posts and work at the mine has been resumed. No. 8 colliery of the Erie company at Pittston resumed work during the morning, 800 men being employed there. The Pettibone colliery of the Lackawanna company found itself able to start up at noon and operations were resumed. No attempt at work was done at any of the mines of the Delaware and Hudson or the Lehigh and Wilkesbarre company. In the face of this change in the situation the strikers are by no means discouraged. In an official statement issued during the evening it is said th in the upper anthracite region the situation remains the same, with strong indications of increased wages for the firemen and there is a greater number of mines idle than ever.

NOT CHANGED MATERIALLY.

No Settlement of the Amalgamated Strike in Sight Yet.

Pittsburg, July 20.—The strike situation is not materially changed, although many rumors are in the air to the effect that a settlement of the troubles is imminent, but none of these reports have been verified and the conclusion reached is that no settlement is in sight.

At the offices of the Carnegie company and at the headquarters of the Manufacturers the usual silence is preserved concerning the condition of business or the status of the strike.

President Shaffer of the Amalgamated Association, however, expresses his entire satisfaction with the progress of the battle and says the workers have gained steadily, while the manufacturers have lost continually since last Monday. He says up to the present time the Amalgamat forces contemplate no change in their programme, being perfectly satisfied with the showing their people have made.

AFFECTS SEVEN THOUSAND.

Southwestern Coal Miners Submit a Scale to the Operators.

Kansas City, July 20.—Representatives of the coal miners of district 25, which comprises all the sub-districts of Missouri, besides Leavenworth county, Kan., through John Mitchell, national president, have submitted a blanket scale of wages for miners and day laborers about the mines to the operators, with whom they have been in conference. Seven thousand men will be affected if a strike shall be called in this district.

Negroes to Take Strikers' Places.

New Orleans, July 20.—Two men have come here from Pittsburg to get negro labor to take the places of strikers in the steel mills of the United States Steel corporation. They secured 50 men and had reports from similar agents in Anniston and Bessemer, Ala., that they had secured 40 men.

Two More Sign the Scale.

Chicago, July 20.—The striking iron molders have added two more firms to the list of those that signed the union agreement for an advance in wages to $3 a day. This makes 13 firms that have signed and about 300 strikers who have returned to work, leaving 800 still idle.

CONSUL GENERAL IS DEAD.

Represented His British Majesty's Government on the Pacific Coast.

San Francisco, July 20.—W. Clayton Pickersgill, H. B. M., consul general for the Pacific coast states and territories, died in a sanitarium in Alameda, to which he was conveyed on Sunday last from his summer residence in the Santa Cruz mountains.

Mr. Pickersgill had been seriously ill for some months past, the result of a long residence in the malarial regions of Africa as consular representative of the British government.

Dead N Number Twenty-two.

Kansas City, July 20.—O. D. Sanborn, the Chenoa, Ills., banker who was terribly scalded in the Alton wreck last week, died at St. Joseph's hospital, being the 22d victim to succumb.

Salmon Fishers' Strike Ended.

Vancouver, B. C., July 20.—The strike of the salmon fishermen against the Fraser river canners has been adjusted, the Vancouver board of trade having acted as mediator. It has been agreed that the fishermen shall receive 12 1-2 cents per fish for one quarter of the entire pack and 10 cents for the remainder of the pack. The union men will begin fishing on Sunday night.

The Word "Christian" Stays.

Richmond, Va., July 20.—The word "Christian" stays in the bill of rights in the Virginia constitution as far as the committee is concerned. By a vote of 7 to 5 it decided to retain the original language.

NORTHCOTT'S APPOINTMENTS.

State Deputies for the Modern Woodmen Named.

Springfield, Ills., July 20.—Lieutenant Governor Northcott, head consul of the Modern Woodmen of America, announces the appointment of the following state deputies: Those newly appointed are: California, D. I. Thornton; Maryland, John F. Harris, Iowa, George N. Frink; Delaware, George H. Russell; Nevada, L. H. Addis, Utah, L. Pierce; New Jersey, E. H. Young; Maine, F. W. Stevens.

Among those reappointed are: Colorado, L. H. Turley; Idaho, T. W. Bartley; Michigan, C. J. Byrns; Minnesota, W. H. Dawson; Nebraska, Ralph E. Johnson; South Dakota, J. H. Gallagher; Wisconsin, B. F. Keeler.

The board of directors has appointed two general attorneys and the Mississippi river will be the dividing line of their territories. The general attorneys appointed are Hon. J. G. Johns of Kansas, former head attorney, and J. H. White of Illinois.

SCORES OF SHEEP DROWN.

Cloudburst Floods Harrold, S. D., and Does Heavy Damage.

Huron, S. D., July 20.—News comes from Harrold, 70 miles west of here, of a cloudburst there, flooding the town and doing much damage. Three inches of water fell in 15 minutes.

Ranchmen had scores of sheep drowned, many cattle were killed by lightning and some large herds were stampeded. Fields of small grain and corn were wiped out and the roadbed of the Chicago and Northwestern railway was damaged. No hail and only a little wind accompanied the storm.

Unknown Negro Lynched.

Crowley, La., July 20.—An unknown negro was lynched here during the day. An officer accosted him to learn his business when he was fired upon by the negro, who then fled. The man escaped into the woods, but was finally caught and taken back to jail, where the crowd captured him and strung him up.

Great Uneasiness at Tien Tsin.

Tien Tsin, July 20.—Great uneasiness is felt here following the resumption by the Chinese of the partial control of the city. Natives are cutting the telegraph line outside of Tien Tsin and fears of further violence are entertained.

PROBLEM FOR YERKES

INTERNAL REVENUE COMMISSIONER TRYING TO DEVISE A SCHEME.

PRODUCTS OF PORTO RICO

After President's Proclamation Cigars, Cigarettes, Rum, Etc., Will Pay No Duty—How to Collect Internal Revenue Taxes Puts the Government in a Quandary—No Official Authorized to Sell Stamps on the Island.

Washington, July 20.—Commissioner Yerkes of the internal revenue bureau at present is busily engaged in devising a scheme for the collection of the internal revenue tax on cigars, cigarettes, rum, etc., brought into the United States from Porto Rico after the president issues his proclamation declaring that free trade exists between the two countries. Under the existing laws internal revenue stamps can be purchased only from collectors of internal revenue or their deputies, and, as Porto Rico is not a collection district, no one there is authorized to sell stamps and hence the difficulty in arranging a system by which exporters may procure stamps without inconvenience. Another difficulty is encountered in the fact that cigars brought in from Porto Rico, not being subject to customs duties, may be brought in at any point or port in the United States, whether it be a port of entry or not, and the danger that large quantities of goods may be smuggled into this country is very great. It is probable that congress will be asked at the next session to make Porto Rico an internal revenue collection district or that it be annexed to some one of the collection districts in the Southern states. Until this is done it is expected that an effective administration of the laws will be accomplished only with some difficulty.

MUST NOT ACT AS AGENTS.

Postmaster General Issues Order to Rural Letter Carriers.

Washington, July 20.—Postmaster General Smith has issued the following order:

"Hereafter rural letter carriers shall not act as agents, salesmen or solicitors for express companies, letter box manufacturers, wholesale houses, corporations or firms, nor engage in any business or avocation which would interfere with the proper performance of their official duties. They may act as news agents, sell newspapers or periodicals on their own account, or accept and collect subscriptions for the same. When carriers receive newspapers or periodicals by express or by other means outside the mails to be sold or delivered on their routes, they, as news agents, will be required to pay postage on such matter at the second class rate of postage (1 cent per pound), except in the case of county papers which are mailed free to subscribers residing in the county in which they are published.

"This order is not intended to prohibit carriers from performing various private commissions for the accommodation of the patrons on their routes so long as it does not interfere with the regular and prompt performance of their duty."

GIRLS OFFERED FOR SALE.

Hundreds Bought by the Chinese Relief Commissioners.

New York, July 20.—Chow Tze, Chinese consul in New York, has forwarded to The Christian Herald the reports of the native commissioners appointed by the governor of Shan Si to assist in the work of relief. These reports detail the work of the relief committee through Shan Si. Near Michi City they saw refugees eating tree leaves and apparently enjoying them. Later they saw hungry birds in the woods fighting for dead bodies. In hundreds of instances young girls who had been sold were purchased by the relief commissioners and sent to the relief camps and their families notified. On one day, May 18, 67 girls were so secured. At places some persons engaged in the traffic were seized and put to death in iron cages, but the authorities seemed powerless to put a stop to the practice.

THE NEW ARMORED CRUISERS.

Naval Board of Construction Considering Plans.

Washington, July 20.—Plans for the new armored cruisers which are expected to be the crack ships of the navy were before the naval board of construction during the day. The plans show a ship of 11,000 tons displacement, 440 feet in length, with 5-inch belt armament. The battery consists of 8-inch guns in turrets, 6-inch guns on broadside and auxiliary batteries of 3-inch rapid firers. As a result of the discussion it is probable that the chief constructor will prepare alternative plans showing somewhat larger cruisers and embodying some changes suggested.

St. Paul, July 20.—Conservative estimates place the number of men required to harvest and thresh this year's crop in Minnesota, North and South Dakota at from 75,000 to 80,000. This estimate places the requirements of North Dakota and Minnesota at 30,000 each and the number for South Dakota at 15,000 or 20,000.

PLEASURE CRAFT CAPSIZES.

Philadelphia Yacht Wrecked on Long Island Sound.

New Haven, Conn., July 20.—Five persons were drowned in the sound off here by the capsizing of the yawl-rigged yacht Venitzia of Philadelphia, five miles east of Sands Point, near the New York and Connecticut line. Two only of those on board the yacht were rescued. The drowned are:

Arthur C. Colburn, owner of the yacht, and his daughters, Ida and Annette Colburn, of Philadelphia; Captain Flint, of Brooklyn, N. Y., master of the yacht, and a sailor, name unknown.

Others on board the ill-fated craft, Mrs. Walter T. Sprankle of Philadelphia and daughter of the owner of the yacht, and the steward, James Standbridge of New York, were rescued by the tug Gertrude after clinging for two hours to the bottom of a capsized boat.

The yacht left Delaware City Monday morning, bound for Newport. Thursday morning it started from Thompsonville, S. I., the intention being to put into Black Rock, Conn., and take on board Mrs. Sprankle's husband, who was expected there.

GET DOWN TO BUSINESS.

Epworth Leaguers Devote Entire Day to Routine Matters.

San Francisco, July 20.—The delegates to the International Epworth League have settled down to business. The entire day was devoted to routine matters, the missionary feature of the religious effort being dwelt upon at length by many of the speakers. Prayer services were held at sunrise in several churches, all of which were largely attended. Promptly at 9 o'clock convention meetings were called to order in the Mechanics' Pavilion and the Alhambra theater, and in both places the addresses delivered were listened to with marked attention. At noon prayer meetings for business men were held in the rooms of the chamber of commerce and the court of the Palace hotel and many prominent citizens were among the worshippers.

In the afternoon overflow meetings were held in the Metropolitan Temple. All of the sessions were characterized by the earnest spirit of religious enthusiasm which has marked all the proceedings since the assembling of the convention.

BRAINED THE FOREMAN.

Fearful Act of a Convict at the Jeffersonville (Ind.) Prison.

Jeffersonville, Ind., July 20.—E. S. McHale, a foreman in the shoe department of the state prison here, was fatally beaten by Lee Kelly, a convict. Kelly brained the foreman with a piece of shafting while women visitors at the prison looked on. The women were thrown into a panic. McHale was taken to Louisville, where a dangerous operation was performed in a final effort to save his life.

KILLED BY LIGHTNING

FIERCE ELECTRIC STORM RESULTS IN FOUR DEATHS IN PENNSYLVANIA.

SEVEN OTEERS ARE INJURED

Had Just Entered Some Buildings to Escape the Rain—The Pleasure Yacht Venitzia Capsizes on Long Island Sound and Five of Her Occupants Are Drowned—Two Are Rescued.

Grove City, Pa., July 20.—A fierce electric storm here resulted in four deaths and severe injury to seven persons. A section crew on the Bessemer and Lake Erie railroad were returning home from work when the storm came up. They left the railroad track and hastened to a deserted house at the Pinchalong mine for shelter. Hardly had they reached the shelter of the place when the house was struck by lightning. Luther Campbell, foreman of the crew, and Howard Cornelius, one of the section men, were both struck by one bo and instantly killed. Two others were also struck and rendered unconscious for eight hours from the same flash and all are in a critical condition.

During the storm a house occupied by a gang of Italians, working on the railroad a few miles south of this place, was struck. There were several men crowded into the little cabin and the house was almost totally destroyed. Anton Daranski and Michael Zaccagai were instantly killed and five of their companions were severely shocked.

DISAPPROVED BY LONG.

MacLay's Naval History Cannot Be Used as a Text Book.

Washington, July 20.—The secretary of the navy has decided that the third volume of MacLay's history of the Spanish-American war shall not be used as a text book at the naval academy unless the obnoxious language it contains in characterizing the action of Rear Admiral Schley shall be eliminated. The secretary says that it would be manifestly improper to have a history containing such intemperate language as a text book for the cadets. He will inform both Commander Wainwright, who is in command of the naval academy, and Mr. MacLay, the author of the history, of his decision.

In this connection the secretary says that the proofs of the entire volume were not submitted to him by the historian. He received only the proofs of the third chapter, that relating to the mobilization of the fleets, which contained a summary of the orders which he, as secretary of the navy, had issued in making the naval preparations for the war. That chapter was satisfactory and he returned it to Mr. MacLay with an indentation of his approval. He says he never saw the account of the battle of Santiago and the criticisms of Rear Admiral Schley until after the book was published. Mr. MacLay was appointed to his present position in the New York navy yard August 23, 1900, having been transferred from the light house service.

SATURDAY, JULY 20, 1901.

Weather.

Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday, with occasional thunder showers. Cooler in west portion.

IT was left for a democratic paper to say that "Ohio sweeps the populistic and socialistic rubbish out of the way."

LITTLE FALLS policemen are now bedecked with new shirt waist suits, and are said to be the coolest looking people in that warm town.

WE never knew exactly why it was until an exchange informed us that the only reason why a banker makes more money than a newspaper is that the banker insists on getting paid for what he does, and always gets his pay in advance.

THE Little Falls Herald editor does not relish the attention the brethren of the press have been giving him since his screed on the Declaration of Independence appeared a few days ago. He performs the crawfish act and says he didn't mean it, that it was just a little "playful irony." It is always better to appear loyal, Bro. Vassaly, even if you don't feel that way.

A MISSOURI paper is led to remark that an improved postage stamp with a rivet or tack fastener will have to be invented for the benefit of drought-stricken localities where there is not sufficient moisture to dampen the ordinary glutinous variety. It is so dry down in that country that the male portion of the many leading families never once think of drinking water.

A SPECIAL meeting of the state board of health is to be called to consider the advisability of burning the lumber camps in the northern part of the state with a view to stamping out the small pox germs before the camps are used again the coming winter. If the plan is adopted Wisconsin and Minnesota will work together on the same plan of defense against a recurrence of the epidemic. It is certain that drastic measures will be have to be used if the northwest is kept free from the disease the coming winter and every possible assistance should be given the authorities in their efforts along this line.

Bracken's Order.

Secretary Braken, of the state board of health has consulted Assistant Attorney General Donahow, relative to his power to issue a general order requiring the vaccination of children throughout the state. In the opinion of the assistant attorney general it lies withing the power of the state board to issue such an order when any infectious disease reaches the state of a general epidemic.

Dr. Bracken believes that smallpox has reached so nearly the proportions of an epidemic that such a step will be necessary to prevent its further spread. No order requiring a general vaccination has yet been issued by the secretary, but one is expected to appear within a few days.

These Are Hicks' Predictions.

Prof. Hicks says that in all probability the 25th to the 29th will constitute one of the most severe storm periods in July. The barometer will prove a safe monitor at this time. If its readings become greatly depressed in western sections, with warm southerly winds in front of the low barometric area, all storm developments should be carefully watched. Those who have no barometers may easily determine whether the conditions are favorable for severe storms, and by a common sense vigilance escape all surprise and danger, in case of tornadic and other violent storms. Heavy gales, thunder, hail and local downpour of rain may be looked for from 25th to 29th. A general and rapid change to much cooler weather will take place at that period.

Ask Jerry Howe.

Men are easily found who will blow a safe, rob a friend or any other man; cut a throat or beat a wife, steal a horse or forge a check, but why any man will consent to umpire a base ball game is yet an open proposition. —Bemidji Pioneer.

She has been giving some very successful demonstrations at M. J. Reilly's store. Mr. Reilly is the sole agent in this city for these goods.

Want Drainage.

The state drainage board, consisting of the governor, state auditor and secretary of state, met recently in the office of the governor. This meeting, like the one which preceeded it, was of a preparatory nature and the board cannot yet be said to have gotten down to business. The duties of the secretary were performed yesterday by the executive clerk of the governor's office, James A. Martin.

George Ralph, of Crookston, was appointed engineer for the commission and was requested to report for duty on Saturday next. By that time, it is expected, the petitions which have been received from various parts of the state where drainage is needed will have been classified and investigated so the board may be able to determine what portion of the lands are the property of the state. Then the engineer will be instructed to make preliminary surveys and estimates of cost and when that has been done the members of the board will go over the ground personally and decide as to the location of ditches. Petition for drainage ditches have thus far been received from Norman, Beltrami, Red Lake, Rosseau, Polk, Wadena, Aitkin and several other counties.

LUMBER IS NOW THE WHOLE THING.

Brainerd Lumber Company's Business Never Better At This Time of Year.

FOUR MILLION FEET OF PINE

Sold Within a Short Space of Time--The Price Ranges Well Also.

There has hardly been a time in the history of the Brainerd Lumber Company when business was more active than it is at the present time. The company is rushed almost to a standstill and the orders now coming in will not be filled very soon.

The company has a large southern trade and the trade on finer grades of lumber from the south has been something enormous this year. Now orders are coming in from the west for heavier material, and the orders are piling up wonderfully.

Business is particularly active in all lines, but the record of sales of pine since July 1 is something marvelous. Over 4,000,000 feet of pine have been sold since the first and the sales are still continuing.

The price has been very good for a considerable amount of this lumber, most of it grading higher than usual.

CURBSTONE CHAT.

J. A. Vandycke: Just tell the boys not to forget the meeting on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

David Archibald, Bay Lake: Everything is lovely out our way. Pretty hot weather but everything is growing.

Landlord Wise: The crops are looking fine and I do not think that the hot weather has affected them any as yet.

County Attorney Alderman: I go to the lake to rest up. The past week has been pretty hard on me and I am rather glad court is over.

President J. C. Smallwood: The Labor Day celebration this year will be a hummer. All laboring men in the city whether they belong to a union or not are invited to participate.

J. C. Congdon: I would like to get upon some high place some morning and take a picture of the N. P. yards when two or three log trains are standing there. It is a great sight.

City Attorney Crowell: It is pretty severe to impose a fine on some people for violating city ordinances, but it is the only way to have the provisions of the ordinances complied with. This morning there were cattle out in the streets not in charge of herders and if it can be found that those who own cows let them out before the herder comes around they too will be prosecuted.

Our alteration and clearing sale continues all this week. All summer goods must be disposed of at some price. Wash goods at 55, 65 and 75 cents on the dollar at A. E. Moberg's.

CAUSED A HEAVY LOSS.

Business Portion of Cambridge, Minn., Destroyed by Fire.

Cambridge, Minn., July 20.—Fire swept the business portion of this town during the night and inflicted an aggregate loss of over $60,000. The fire is supposed to have started in the rear of Presley's drug store at 11:15 p. m. and it was not until 3 o'clock in the morning that the flames were brought under control. The losses are:

Merchants hotel, $12,000; P. O. Peterson, $12,000; Presley's drug store, $4,000; Alfred Smith, general store, $9,000; H. G. Johnson, general store, $11,000; Lounard's saloon, $5,000; Satterlund's jewelry store, $2,000; C. L. Johnson & Co., clothing store, $3,500.

Several barns were also destroyed and at times it seemed as if the flames would extend to every building in the place.

The fire had obtained a good start before being discovered and the buildings were an easy prey.

The guests of the hotel had plenty of time to escape and saved most of their effects.

WAS NOT SENSATIONAL.

Dinner to Mr. Asquith Passes Off Very Quietly.

London, July 20.—The dinner given to Hon. Herbert M. Asquith, M. P., by a number of members of the house of commons and 370 other prominent public men, which had been looked forward to for a month, as it was expected to lead to a division of the Liberal party, was a quiet and orderly affair. The event had evidently been spoiled by the events of the week, especially the letter of Lord Rosebery to the City Liberal club. Mr. Asquith spoke with deference of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman and of Lord Rosebery. He referred to his protest against the Liberal party identifying itself with the pro-Boer group, saying that Liberals must recognize the empire and its needs and the importance of domestic affairs. The speech was guarded in every way without altering the position of the Liberal party.

WERE ILLEGALLY COLLECTED

Klondike Miners Would Recover Royalties Paid Canada.

Seattle, Wash., July 20.—Advices from Dawson say that a well supported movement is on foot there to recover the royalties paid the Canadian government on gold mines in 18 All of the most interested mine owners of that period have joined together as plaintiffs and many who have since moved to the American side are joining the movement. The contention of the plaintiffs is to the effect that the royalties were illegally collected on the ground that the grants from the government for which the applicants paid a fee expressly stated that the grantees were entitled to "all" gold taken from their respective claims.

AUSTRIAN OFFICER DEGRADED.

Cut Off the Ear of One of His Friends on a Wager.

London, uly 20.—Count Gabriel Kepezey, a first lieutenant in one of the Honved Hussar regiments, says a dispatch to The Daily Mail from Budapest, has been formally degraded in Szgdein before the whole regiment. He made a dining bet that he would cut off the right ear of one of his b friends, Caspar Kanyo, with his sabre. He then approached the unsuspecting Kanyo and slashed off his ear. Kanyo fired at Kepezey with a revolver, but missed him. Then finding himself without the ear he turned the revolver on himself and fell dead. The colonel in degrading Kepezey warned the officers against drunkenness and debauchery.

Lipton's Sailors on Strike.

Glasgow, July 20.—Fifteen of the sailors engaged by Sir Thomas Lipton to sail the Shamrock II have refused to go to the United States unless they are given more money. The Shamrock II was dismantled at Greenock and the crew were paid off Fifteen who had arranged to transfer to the challenger at a bonus of £8 above their wages struck for £15. It is not known what Sir Thomas Lipton will decide to do.

Rhodes and Jameson in England.

London, July 20.—Cecil Rhodes and Dr. Jameson landed at Southampton from Cape Colony. They were met by Alfred Beit, the financier, and H. B. A. Hawksley, counsel for the British South Africa company, and other friends. Mr. Rhodes and Mr. Beit declined to discuss South African questions, saying they were no longer public men.

Schlatter Charged With Vagrancy.

Washington, July 20.—The man claiming to be Francis Schlatter and representing himself as a divine healer was arrested in this city and was examined by physicians to determine his sanity. They reached the conclusion that he is not a proper subject for an asylum and he will be arraigned on a charge of vagrancy.

More Boer Prisoners at Bermuda.

Hamilton, Bermuda, July 20.—The British transport Ranee arrived here at daylight from St. Vincent, Cape Verde island, with the second batch of Boer prisoners of war for confinement on Darrells and Tuckers islands. The prisoners number 519 men. The Ranee had a fair passage.

Two Dead, Two Fatally Hurt.

Evansville, Ind., July 19.—Two freight trains on the Louisville and Nashville railroad collided headon at Nortonville, Ky., killing two men and injuring four, two fatally.

TO WIPE OUT SMALLPOX.

Systematic Fight Proposed by Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan.

Milwaukee, July 20.—Governor La Follette has issued a request to the state board of health for a special meeting in regard to the extinction of smallpox, to be held at Madison next week.

At that meeting arrangements will be made for a conference of all the boards of health of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota to plan for the extinction of the disease in this portion of the country, especially in the logging districts, which are permeated with cases of the epidemic.

The plans for the work are not formulated, but at its meeting next week the Wisconsin board will formulate a scheme of operating which will be presented to the officials of the other states when the conference is held. The trouble is now centered in the northern part of Wisconsin, the upper peninsula of Michigan and Minnesota.

By the constant interchange of business between the three districts the disease spreads readily and unless steps are taken before fall sets in there is every reason to believe that all three states are threatened with ravage by the disease. The meeting will be held at Duluth in August.

QUESTION OF AUTHORITY.

Postoffice Clerk Forced to Go With the Militia.

Muncie, Ind., July 20.—Company B of the Indiana national guard went to Indianapolis having in charge one member who is going under protest after having been forcibly taken from the postoffice. He is a clerk in the postoffice who could not get excused from one branch of the government service to enter the other and refused to go until forcibly taken away. He will be brought before Judge Baker in Indianapolis and there will be settled an interesting question as to which has authority in such cases, the federal or military departments.

NEW DANISH MINISTRY.

Dr. Deuntzer Entrusted With the Task of Forming a Cabinet.

Copenhagen, July 20.—King Christian has entrusted Dr. Deuntzer with the task of organizing a Liberal ministry to succeed the Deschested cabinet, which resigned Wednesday. The following selections have already been made:

President of the council, Dr. Deuntzer; minister of justice, Alberti; minister of the interior, Count Holstein; minister of foreign affairs, Alfred Hage; minister of finance, Christensen; minister of agriculture, Ole Hanson.

Greeks and Austrians Fight.

Denver, July 20.—A special to The News from Sydney, Neb., says: Greek and Austrian railway graders met here in deadly combat. Six Greeks were wounded and one Austrian was killed. After a drunken row the Austrians attacked the Greeks with knives, revolvers and clubs and completely routed them, after wounding six of their number. Rabe Lubovic, an Austrian, was killed.

Over Ninety Thousand Register.

El Reno, O. T., July 20.—When the registration booths closed 92,599 homeseekers had been given slips entitling them to a chance in the drawing. The day's figures from El Reno were 10,339, making a total of 70,497, while 1,447 persons registered at Lawton, briging the total for that place up to 22,102.

Hot Again at Duluth.

Duluth, July 20.—The hot wave has the head of the Lakes in its grasp again and between the hours of 10 a. m. and 1 p. m. the temperature shot up 30 degs. It registered 62 at 10 and 92 at 1. The maximum for the day was 96.

Find Valuable Vein of Gold.

La Crosse, Wis., July 20.—A valuable vein of gold has been discovered on the farm of J. V. Allen a few miles from Avalanche, Vernon county, this state, adjoining a copper mine located there.

HEROINE OF THE PLAINS.

How "Calamity Jane," Noted Indian Fighter, Got Her Name.

Details of the manner in which "Calamity Jane," the noted frontierswoman of Montana, who has accepted the offer of a home by Mrs. Josephine Winfield Brake of Buffalo, came to be christened as she was by Captain Egan have lately appeared, says the Chicago American. The miners at Deadwood were besieged by a heavy force of Indians, and a command from the fort near Butte was ordered to the rescue. The relations between Indians and whites in the northwest were, to put it mildly, somewhat strained, and the redskins were inclined to be the aggressors. At any rate, there was a running fight from Butte to Deadwood and one or two sharp encounters. Finally came on a regular and fierce engagement. The firing attained to close range, and there was a heavy loss to the Indians and loss, though in a lesser degree, among the soldiers.

A charge was ordered and executed furiously, Captain Egan leading and "Calamity Jane," in her garb of a scout, close beside him. They were fairly among the Indians when suddenly the captain was seen to totter in his saddle. He retained his seat for a moment, then tumbled from his horse and lay unconscious upon the ground.

In a moment "Calamity Jane" was beside him. The soldiers were having their hands full, and here were these two, alone among a band of savages, for the fight had drifted from them. Two Indians saw their opportunity for scalps and rode down upon the single man, or what appeared to be a man. They never got those scalps. "Calamity Jane" killed one of the Indians, and, while the other hesitated a nearer approach, she lifted the unconscious captain to a place before her on her saddle and galloped away with him to a place of safety.

"CALAMITY JANE."

When Captain Egan regained his senses and discovered that his rescuer was a woman, he was astonished—the woman who had been known in camp as merely Jane.

"Well, Jane," said he as he lay bandaged in his tent, "you're a good one to have around in times of calamity."

The soldiers caught up the expression, and thenceforth and until now the fighting woman has been known only as "Calamity Jane."

TO STUDY ENGLISH ROWING

Object of Yale Oarsmen's Trip Abroad Leaks Out.

It was learned at New Haven the other evening that Captain Phil Kunzig of the Yale varsity crew has gone to England to join John Kennedy, Yale professional coach, in looking up points on rowing.

The Yale navy decided after the races at New London to send Kennedy abroad to study English rowing, says the Philadelphia Press. Kunzig and E. L. Mitchell of this year's varsity eight will be with Kennedy throughout the summer and together with him will gather all the information that they can get among the English boat clubs.

The New Excelsior.

The shades of night were all pulled down
As onward hustled through the town
A youth who bore where breezes stirred
A pennant with the single word,
"Commercialism!"

His brow was moist; his eye below
Gleamed with a dull and smold'ring glow,
And like a cracked and ancient bell
Arose his queer, defiant yell,
"Commercialism!"

At happy lads in harmless play
He coldly stared and strode away,
And as he passed they faintly heard
Him mutter forth that fated word,
"Commercialism!"

"Oh, wait," the pastor hailed the youth,
"And humbly learn eternal truth!"
"I'll think of that," the boy replied,
"When I have turned the golden tide.
Commercialism!"

"Oh, come to school," the master said,
"And fill with lore your youthful head!"
The boy yelled back as on he raced:
"Old man, I have no years to waste!
Commercialism!"

"Oh, stay," the maiden softly cried,
"And I will be your loving bride!"
The youth called back, with scornful smile:
"Just wait until I've made my pile!
Commercialism!"

Then cried the sage, "Beware the joys
That link themselves to golden toys!"
"Bah!" cried the youth. "You do but jest!
I've linked my life unto this quest.
Commercialism!"

Right on he kept his hurried pace
Nor staid for aught the golden chase,
His watchword still the eager croak
That hardly on the silence broke,
"Commercialism!"

He craved for fortune more and more
When weight of years upon him bore,
And still with feeble whining cried,
"There is no power that ranks beside
Commercialism!"

One day they found him dead and cold
Beside his chests of worshiped gold,
And on the breeze that round him moaned
They heard that fateful word intoned,
"Commercialism!"

Golf In the Old Days.

Centuries back golf was a pastime of the royal family, though then usually played in Scotland. The Stuart family was very fond of the game, and the first English club was established at Blackheath in 1608 by James I. His eldest son, Henry, frequently played and on one occasion nearly struck by accident his tutor with a club, whereupon he coolly remarked, "Had I done so I had but paid my debts." Charles I was playing golf when he received the news of the Irish rebellion. James, duke of York, afterward James II, was another ardent player. Golf is frequently mentioned in ancient Scottish records and in the fifteenth century was prohibited because it interfered with the practice of archery. Strutt considered it the most ancient game at ball requiring a bat.—London Chronicle.

The Squirrel Hunter's Weapon.

The cream of squirrel hunting is enjoyed by the man who uses a light rifle of small caliber and medium power. The ".22 long" as now turned out by our leading makers is an excellent weapon—in fact, the best in the world for the purpose. Though not of sufficient range to be dangerous to people or stock at a distance, it throws lead with surprising accuracy to the tops of the tallest trees. Good rifle shots always aim for the squirrel's head both to add to the difficulty of the sport and to avoid spoiling meat. And be it known that a squirrel's head at a range of 40 or 50 yards is no easy mark. If a reader doubts this, let him go to the woods for a day, keep all empty shells, and at the end of the day let him try to make the dead squirrels and the empty shells tally.—E. W. Sandys in Outing.

Early Birds.

The green finch is the earliest riser. It pipes as early as half past 1 in the morning. The blackcap begins at half past 2. It is nearly 4 o'clock before the blackbird appears. It is heard half an hour before the thrush, and the chirp of the robin begins about the same length of time before that of the wren. The house sparrow and the tomtit take the last stage of the list.

Advantages of Port Cities.

The revenue New York derives from the rental of piers to the Cunard, the White Star, the American, the Atlantic Transport, the French, the Leyland, the National and other lines is nearly $1,000,000 annually. The White Star line pays the largest rental, $217,000; the Cunard line is next with $120,000 and the American line third with $88,400.—Ainslee's.

Life Insurance.

It is an interesting fact that, whatever the reason may be, life insurance is much more popular in the United States than in any other country. In proportion to their numbers the American people carry twice as much life insurance as the Britishers, five times as much as the Germans and eight times as much as the French.

This is partly explained by the large number of American policies issued to serve other purposes than mere provision for the families of the insured. The scope of what may be called business as distinguished from family insurance is constantly enlarging. A novel and interesting recent development of it is the insurance of the lives of Protestant ministers for large sums which are made payable at their deaths to their churches.—New York World.

Where They Agreed.

At the silver wedding of the Prince and Princess of Wales an English town wished to present an address, but there was a great discussion as to its wording. For some time they could not agree at all. "Conscious as we are of our own unworthiness" was universally condemned, but when some one proposed "Conscious as we are of each other's unworthiness" it was agreed to to a man.

Weather.

Partly cloudy tonight and Sunday, with occasional thunder showers. Cooler in west portion.

IT was left for a democratic paper to say that "Ohio sweeps the populistic and socialistic rubbish out of the way."

LITTLE FALLS policemen are now bedecked with new shirt waist suits, and are said to be the coolest looking people in that warm town.

WE never knew exactly why it was until an exchange informed us that the only reason why a banker makes more money than a newspaper is that the banker insists on getting paid for what he does, and always gets his pay in advance.

THE Little Falls Herald editor does not relish the attention the brethren of the press have been giving him since his screed on the Declaration of Independence appeared a few days ago. He performs the crawfish act and says he didn't mean it, that it was just a little "playful irony." It is always better to appear loyal, Bro. Vassaly, even if you don't feel that way.

A MISSOURI paper is led to remark that an improved postage stamp with a rivet or tack fastener will have to be invented for the benefit of drought-stricken localities where there is not sufficient moisture to dampen the ordinary glutinous variety. It is so dry down in that country that the male portion of the many leading families never once think of drinking water.

A SPECIAL meeting of the state board of health is to be called to consider the advisability of burning the lumber camps in the northern part of the state with a view to stamping out the small pox germs before the camps are used again the coming winter. If the plan is adopted Wisconsin and Minnesota will work together on the same plan of defense against a recurrence of the epidemic. It is certain that drastic measures will be have to be used if the northwest is kept free from the disease the coming winter and every possible assistance should be given the authorities in their efforts along this line.

Bracken's Order.

Secretary Braken, of the state board of health has consulted Assistant Attorney General Donahow, relative to his power to issue a general order requiring the vaccination of children throughout the state. In the opinion of the assistant attorney general it lies withing the power of the state board to issue such an order when any infectious disease reaches the state of a general epidemic.

Dr. Bracken believes that smallpox has reached so nearly the proportions of an epidemic that such a step will be necessary to prevent its further spread. No order requiring a general vaccination has yet been issued by the secretary, but one is expected to appear within a few days.

These Are Hicks' Predictions.

Prof. Hicks says that in all probability the 25th to the 29th will constitute one of the most severe storm periods in July. The barometer will prove a safe monitor at this time. If its readings become greatly depressed in western sections, with warm southerly winds in front of the low barometric area, all storm developments should be carefully watched. Those who have no barometers may easily determine whether the conditions are favorable for severe storms, and by a common sense vigilance escape all surprise and danger, in case of tornadic and other violent storms. Heavy gales, thunder, hail and local downpour of rain may be looked for from 25th to 29th. A general and rapid change to much cooler weather will take place at that period.

Ask Jerry Howe.

Men are easily found who will blow a safe, rob a friend or any other man; cut a throat or beat a wife, steal a horse or forge a check, but why any man will consent to umpire a base ball game is yet an open proposition. —Bemidji Pioneer.

Want Drainage.

The state drainage board, consisting of the governor, state auditor and secretary of state, met recently in the office of the governor. This meeting, like the one which preceded it, was of a preparatory nature and the board cannot yet be said to have gotten down to business. The duties of the secretary were performed yesterday by the executive clerk of the governor's office, James A. Martin.

George Ralph, of Crookston, was appointed engineer for the commission and was requested to report for duty on Saturday next. By that time, it is expected, the petitions which have been received from various parts of the state where drainage is needed will have been classified and investigated so the board may be able to determine what portion of the lands are the property of the state. Then the engineer will be instructed to make preliminary surveys and estimates of cost and when that has been done the members of the board will go over the ground personally and decide as to the location of ditches. Petition for drainage ditches have thus far been received from Norman, Beltrami, Red Lake, Rosseau, Polk, Wadena, Aitkin and several other counties.

LUMBER IS NOW THE WHOLE THING.

Brainerd Lumber Company's Business Never Better At This Time of Year.

FOUR MILLION FEET OF PINE

Sold Within a Short Space of Time--The Price Ranges Well Also.

There has hardly been a time in the history of the Brainerd Lumber Company when business was more active than it is at the present time. The company is rushed almost to a standstill and the orders now coming in will not be filled very soon.

The company has a large southern trade and the trade on finer grades of lumber from the south has been something enormous this year. Now orders are coming in from the west for heavier material, and the orders are piling up wonderfully.

Business is particularly active in all lines, but the record of sales of pine since July 1 is something marvelous. Over 4,000,000 feet of pine have been sold since the first and the sales are still continuing.

The price has been very good for a considerable amount of this lumber, most of it grading higher than usual.

CURBSTONE CHAT.

J. A. Vandycke: Just tell the boys not to forget the meeting on Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock.

David Archibald, Bay Lake: Everything is lovely out our way. Pretty hot weather but everything is growing.

Landlord Wise: The crops are looking fine and I do not think that the hot weather has affected them any as yet.

County Attorney Alderman: I go to the lake to rest up. The past week has been pretty hard on me and I am rather glad court is over.

President J. C. Smallwood: The Labor Day celebration this year will be a hummer. All laboring men in the city whether they belong to a union or not are invited to participate.

J. C. Congdon: I would like to get upon some high place some morning and take a picture of the N. P. yards when two or three log trains are standing there. It is a great sight.

City Attorney Crowell: It is pretty severe to impose a fine on some people for violating city ordinances, but it is the only way to have the provisions of the ordinances complied with. This morning there were cattle out in the streets not in charge of herders and if it can be found that those who own cows let them out before the herder comes around they too will be prosecuted.

Our alteration and clearing sale continues all this week. All summer goods must be disposed of at some price. Wash goods at 55, 65 and 75 cents on the dollar at A. E. Moberg's.

SUNDAY JULY 21.

HON. J. ADAM BEDE ON EDUCATON.

A Good Audience Greets the Gentleman at The First M. E. Church.

HIS ADVICE TO SCHOOL MARMS.

Opening Remarks Laudatory of of Minnesota's Educational Advantages.

The Hon. J. Adam Bede, one of the best known public men in the state and a lecturer of renown, was heard at the First M. E. church in this city last night to good advantage. The weather was very warm, but notwithstanding the high temperature, there was a good attendance.

Mr. Bede had no particular subject but his talk was along educational lines. He opened with some remarks laudatory of the state of Minnesota and said that the state is ahead of any other in the perfection of its educational organization and in the highness of rank and standard. The pride of our country is its fine schools and churches. Because they are free they are not always sought. Other features hold girls. Thus, Mr. Bede said, the solution of the problem of keeping the children in city schools is clear, but it is yet to be solved in the rural schools. It is being solved in the east by the centralizing or township system. This idea of centralization is also growing popular in the west.

He said that education is another thing now from what it was 50 years ago. Kindergarten work as conducted is not forcing knowledge upon a child, but the children reach for it. The "boarding around" feature of bygone times still leaves its lessons to the rural teacher. It is well for her to know the home environment of each child, for thus she learns the diplomacy of getting along with folks. The teacher must be careful of her personal appearance and of her actions and manners. She must be able to build character. The impressions that the teacher makes is unconscious to herself. Children are susceptible. Often they look up to the teacher as one above their parents. They drink in her thoughts and adopt her habits and manners. Mr. Bede said: "It takes an angel to teach children, for of such is the kingdom of heaven, so we let our wives teach them."

To have better teachers they must be given better pay, longer contracts or engagements. With a twinkle in his eye, Mr. Bede said that he meant teaching engagements and advised that a young lady should not teach long enough to get cranky, but should get married before that time.

He said that children must be blessed with good things. The teacher must adapt herself to her pupils. Girls give the least trouble. She is the new woman—"a burst of sunshine." The boy is an enigma. There is a period in a boy's life that he doesn't know what he is on earth for. He has to have his first fight—one, only, if he gets licked. There are kings among children, but they must be taught the rights of others and they can only learn right and wrong by experience. So, there is always the difficult task of making citizens for our great republic and these peculiarities have ever been with us since.

He said that the teacher needs alertness and an interest in all that goes on about her; should identify herself with her surroundings and take a common interest in current affairs. A gentle voice is an imperative requirement.

He especially urged more attention to the more thorough teaching of our own language. There is great beauty in the English language which passes unnoticed, because it is common, but our attention is always called to beauty in Latin or Greek. This can be transplanted to the English language. He recited Field's "Little Boy Blue" and gave a passage from Blaine's eulogy on Garfield and said that if such productions should be dug up from buried cities we would acknowledge the beauty in the language.

Pupils mistake the meaning of words. He gave the following examples of errors:

One said a demagogue was a vessel for beer and other liquids; ammonia was a food for the gods; capillary was mistaken for caterpillar; equestrian, one who asks questions; a mercenary, one who feels for others; exports are the things that are paid for; imports, those that are not; optimist, an eye doctor, and pessimist a corn doctor. One said the body was made up of avaricious tissue. Another made the statement that a girl acted with discretion at a perennial time instead of critical time. Thus it is clear that more attention should be given to language study.

He then called attention to the value of self improvement, the study of a few masterpieces, and the value of the sciences. Sciences are the experience of the past that teach what is to come in the future. The world cannot be maintained without them.

CAUSE FOR ACTION.

Minnesota Lumbermen Have Refused To Comply With Ruling of The Interior Department.

There is likely to be considerable controversy in this state over the ruling recently made by the interior department in regard to the assessment imposed on green white pine.

A Washington dispatch says:

"The Minnesota lumbermen have refused point blank to comply with the ruling of the interior department imposing an assessment of $12 per thousand for green white pine which was found among the dead and down logs. As a result suit will be brought, and United States District Attorney Evans will be instructed on a course of action. Mr. Evans will be assisted by special counsel, and it is quite probable that one of the assistant attorneys from Washington may go out to the field of operations.

There is, of course, a chance for a settlement, but the department seems to be firm in insisting on the price fixed. Lumbermen claim it is an exorbitant and outrageous figure, but Indian Commissioner Jones says it is not too high for a tresspass case."

Accepts Position As Wiper.

William Simon Bonga, who was recently married in this city to Miss Ida L. Hemile, receives the following send off by the Minneapolis Tribune:

"A full-blood Chippewa Indian lad 18 years old, became a member of the Great Northern shop force in St. Paul, when the whistle blew at 7:15 o'clock this morning. He will begin to apply the knowledge he has stored up in the seven years course at the Flandrau, (S. D.) Indian school to the task of making a name in the world, as an engine wiper.

Simon Bonga was born on the Leech Lake Indian reservation. He is the son of William Bonga, a well known Chippewa interpreter. He graduated less than two weeks ago from the government school, taking high honors.

He reached St. Paul yesterday from the reservation, applied to Supt. Deveraux at the shops for a job, and he began work today with the intention of becoming a locomotive engineer, and after that a full fledged railway official."

No preaching in the evening, as the Young People's Union will hold their monthly union meeting. Everybody cordially invited. Meeting will be held in the M. E. church. Good singing, good speaking and a good time.

LABORING MEN WILL CELEBRATE.

Labor Day Will be Appropriately Observed in Brainerd This Year.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING HELD.

Committees Appointed and All Laborers Whether Union Men or Not Invited.

There was an enthusiastic meeting of the laboring men of the city last evening in the Trades and Labor Assembly hall and it was unanimously decided to celebrate Labor Day, Monday, September 2.

President Smallwood presided at the meeting and the matter of a celebration was thoroughly discussed.

The celebration this year will be conducted on a larger and grander scale than ever before. Those present last evening want it distinctly understood that the celebration is not one for those who belong to unions alone, but for all laboring men in whatever capacity. It is their day and the celebration is a general one for laboring men. The events of the day will be announced in a short time and the matter will be thoroughly advertised.

The following committee was appointed on finances: Hon. A. F. Ferris, chairman; J. T. Sanborn, S. R. Adair, and George E. Gardner.

A committee consisting of Messrs Frank G. Hall, Alex McCarthy and Richard Isle was appointed to secure the band for the celebration. They were instructed to report on the matter at the next regular meeting.

BELL-VINCENT.

Pretty Wedding Occured in this City Last Night. Two Minneapolis Parties Being Principals.

Last night at 8 oclock Mr. T. R. Bell and Miss Myrtle Vincent, both of Minneapolis, were united in marriage, and it was one of the prettiest little weddings solemnized for sometime.

The bride was attired in a gown of white organdie and she was attended by Miss Maude Harrison, maid of honor. The best man was Frank Bell, of Minneapolis, brother of the groom.

After the wedding ceremony the young couple with the bridal party partook of a wedding dinner at the Palace hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Bell left last night for a short wedding tour in the east. They expect to return to Brainerd to make their future home.

Wants Son Pardoned.

The father of George W. Wolf, the young man from Brainerd who was convicted of cutting government timber and who was sentenced to three months in jail and to pay a fine of $900, arrived in the city yesterday, and he will make an effort to have his son pardoned by President McKinley.

Mr. Wolf called at the office of the United States district attorney, where he held a consultation with Mr. Purdy, and he asserted that he can produce evidence that will establish the innocence of his son. He claims that the timber was cut by two men who are now at large, and he will prepare affidavits to this effect which will be forwarded to Washington.—St. Paul Globe.

THE GAME TOMORROW.

One of the Best Games of the Season will be Played at Swartz Driving Park Tomorrow Afternoon.

The great game of the season, in fact one of the warmest, will be played tomorrow afternoon at Swartz driving park between the local team and the team from Aitkin which played in this city last Sunday.

The local team has been greatly strengthened and the fact that tomorrow will be the first occasion upon which the new suits of the Brainerd team will be worn, ought to be a drawing card. There will be ample provision for everyone to go to the park who want to see the game.

The members of the team met last evening and elected Ed. Dressen captain of the team. The team has been out doing some practice work this week and there should be a fine game. The Aitkin team is a good team, and they play ball all the time and the boys have no walkaway, but with a good attendance and some encouragement from the grand stand, Brainerd is sure to win.

The Brainerd band will be out tomorrow for the first time since the reorganization and both teams will parade the streets in the afternoon before the game with the band.

The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock and the rigs will leave the corner of Sixth and Front streets in ample time to get to the grounds. There will be plenty of accommodation for transportation tomorrow.

Just to show the Brainerd club that the trick of defeating them by a score of 6 to 3, at Verndale, could be repeated, the Millers whispered to them over the wires to come to Perham, Sunday, and watch closely, to see if they could catch on how it was done Of course they did'nt catch on, as the score of 6 to 2 will show that the Millers did the trick, even neater than before. Another large crowd saw the game and "encouraged" the Millers to victory.—Perham Bulletin.

Say, you fellow over there, don't you know that the Brainerd team who played you Sunday was only the second team?

TERM CLOSES.

The Work of The July Term of The District Court is Completed Yesterday Afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon the work of the district court for the general July term was completed, the case of the First M. E. church vs. J. N. Beviers being the last case tried on the calendar. It has been a rather busy term and considerable business has been transacted.

The above case resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $55. This virtually cuts the bill in two. Beviers contract was something like $110, and according to the jury there was some defect in the plant which he put in.

From Cass Lake.

The election held on Tuesday at Cass Lake for the purpose of voting on the proposition of issuing negotiable certificates of the village in the sum of $10,000 with which to construct a sewer system on certain designated streets of the village and to pay the outstanding indebtedness of the village, resulted in the defeat of the proposition. A very small vote was cast—only 130—seventy-five being in favor of the proposition, and fifty-four against it, and one ballot thrown out on account of ineligibility.

An effort will be made by the school board of Independent School District No. 3 to have embraced within the district that portion of Cass Lake which is located on the reservation, section 16. As at present constituted the district embraces only the organized portion of the village, and a portion of the settlement in the vicinity of the Glenmont sawmill, which is located on an allotment on the north half of section 15. C. E. Leeman, one of the directors of the board, will go to Walker on Friday to consult with the board of county commissioners regarding the matter.

Estrayed.

From my enclosure on Sec. 9, T. 134, R. 28, on Long Lake north, a bunch of young stock branded on left hip with letter "P". Reward for information leading to their recovery. C. N. PARKER.

CAUSE FOR ACTION.

Minnesota Lumbermen Have Refused To Comply With Ruling of The Interior Department.

There is likely to be considerable controversy in this state over the ruling recently made by the interior department in regard to the assessment imposed on green white pine.

A Washington dispatch says:

"The Minnesota lumbermen have refused point blank to comply with the ruling of the interior department imposing an assessment of $12 per thousand for green white pine which was found among the dead and down logs. As a result suit will be brought, and United States District Attorney Evans will be instructed on a course of action. Mr. Evans will be assisted by special counsel, and it is quite probable that one of the assistant attorneys from Washington may go out to the field of operations.

There is, of course, a chance for a settlement, but the department seems to be firm in insisting on the price fixed. Lumbermen claim it is an exorbitant and outrageous figure, but Indian Commissioner Jones says it is not too high for a tresspass case."

Accepts Position As Wiper.

William Simon Bonga, who was recently married in this city to Miss Ida L. Hemile, receives the following send off by the Minneapolis Tribune:

"A full-blood Chippewa Indian lad 18 years old, became a member of the Great Northern shop force in St. Paul, when the whistle blew at 7:15 o'clock this morning. He will begin to apply the knowledge he has stored up in the seven years course at the Flandrau, (S. D.) Indian school to the task of making a name in the world, as an engine wiper.

Simon Bonga was born on the Leech Lake Indian reservation. He is the son of William Bonga, a well known Chippewa interpreter. He graduated less than two weeks ago from the government school, taking high honors.

He reached St. Paul yesterday from the reservation, applied to Supt. Deveraux at the shops for a job, and he began work today with the intention of becoming a locomotive engineer, and after that a full fledged railway official."

LABORING MEN WILL CELEBRATE.

Labor Day Will be Appropriately Observed in Brainerd This Year.

ENTHUSIASTIC MEETING HELD.

Committees Appointed and All Laborers Whether Union Men or Not Invited.

There was an enthusiastic meeting of the laboring men of the city last evening in the Trades and Labor Assembly hall and it was unanimously decided to celebrate Labor Day, Monday, September 2.

President Smallwood presided at the meeting and the matter of a celebration was thoroughly discussed.

The celebration this year will be conducted on a larger and grander scale than ever before. Those present last evening want it distinctly understood that the celebration is not one for those who belong to unions alone, but for all laboring men in whatever capacity. It is their day and the celebration is a general one for laboring men. The events of the day will be announced in a short time and the matter will be thoroughly advertised.

The following committee was appointed on finances: Hon. A. F. Ferris, chairman; J. T. Sanborn, S. R. Adair, and George E. Gardner.

A committee consisting of Messrs Frank G. Hall, Alex McCarthy and Richard Isle was appointed to secure the band for the celebration. They were instructed to report on the matter at the next regular meeting.

BELL-VINCENT.

Pretty Wedding Occured in this City Last Night. Two Minneapolis Parties Being Principals.

Last night at 8 oclock Mr. T. R. Bell and Miss Myrtle Vincent, both of Minneapolis, were united in marriage, and it was one of the prettiest little weddings solemnized for sometime.

The bride was attired in a gown of white organdie and she was attended by Miss Maude Harrison, maid of honor. The best man was Frank Bell, of Minneapolis, brother of the groom.

After the wedding ceremony the young couple with the bridal party partook of a wedding dinner at the Palace hotel. Mr. and Mrs. Bell left last night for a short wedding tour in the east. They expect to return to Brainerd to make their future home.

Wants Son Pardoned.

The father of George W. Wolf, the young man from Brainerd who was convicted of cutting government timber and who was sentenced to three months in jail and to pay a fine of $900, arrived in the city yesterday, and he will make an effort to have his son pardoned by President McKinley.

Mr. Wolf called at the office of the United States district attorney, where he held a consultation with Mr. Purdy, and he asserted that he can produce evidence that will establish the innocence of his son. He claims that the timber was cut by two men who are now at large, and he will prepare affidavits to this effect which will be forwarded to Washington.—St. Paul Globe.

THE GAME TOMORROW.

One of the Best Games of the Season will be Played at Swartz Driving Park Tomorrow Afternoon.

The great game of the season, in fact one of the warmest, will be played tomorrow afternoon at Swartz driving park between the local team and the team from Aitkin which played in this city last Sunday.

The local team has been greatly strengthened and the fact that tomorrow will be the first occasion upon which the new suits of the Brainerd team will be worn, ought to be a drawing card. There will be ample provision for everyone to go to the park who want to see the game.

The members of the team met last evening and elected Ed. Dressen captain of the team. The team has been out doing some practice work this week and there should be a fine game. The Aitkin team is a good team, and they play ball all the time and the boys have no walkaway, but with a good attendance and some encouragement from the grand stand, Brainerd is sure to win.

The Brainerd band will be out tomorrow for the first time since the reorganization and both teams will parade the streets in the afternoon before the game with the band.

The game will be called at 3:30 o'clock and the rigs will leave the corner of Sixth and Front streets in ample time to get to the grounds. There will be plenty of accommodation for transportation tomorrow.

Just to show the Brainerd club that the trick of defeating them by a score of 6 to 3, at Verndale, could be repeated, the Millers whispered to them over the wires to come to Perham, Sunday, and watch closely, to see if they could catch on how it was done Of course they did'nt catch on, as the score of 6 to 2 will show that the Millers did the trick, even neater than before. Another large crowd saw the game and "encouraged" the Millers to victory.—Perham Bulletin.

Say, you fellow over there, don't you know that the Brainerd team who played you Sunday was only the second team?

TERM CLOSES.

The Work of The July Term of The District Court is Completed Yesterday Afternoon.

Yesterday afternoon the work of the district court for the general July term was completed, the case of the First M. E. church vs. J. N. Beviers being the last case tried on the calendar. It has been a rather busy term and considerable business has been transacted.

The above case resulted in a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $55. This virtually cuts the bill in two. Beviers contract was something like $110, and according to the jury there was some defect in the plant which he put in.

From Cass Lake.

The election held on Tuesday at Cass Lake for the purpose of voting on the proposition of issuing negotiable certificates of the village in the sum of $10,000 with which to construct a sewer system on certain designated streets of the village and to pay the outstanding indebtedness of the village, resulted in the defeat of the proposition. A very small vote was cast—only 130—seventy-five being in favor of the proposition, and fifty-four against it, and one ballot thrown out on account of ineligibility.

An effort will be made by the school board of Independent School District No. 3 to have embraced within the district that portion of Cass Lake which is located on the reservation, section 16. As at present constituted the district embraces only the organized portion of the village, and a portion of the settlement in the vicinity of the Glenmont sawmill, which is located on an allotment on the north half of section 15. C. E. Leeman, one of the directors of the board, will go to Walker on Friday to consult with the board of county commissioners regarding the matter.

Estrayed.

CAUSED A HEAVY LOSS.

Business Portion of Cambridge, Minn., Destroyed by Fire.

Cambridge, Minn., July 20.—Fire swept the business portion of this town during the night and inflicted an aggregate loss of over $60,000. The fire is supposed to have started in the rear of Presley's drug store at 11:15 p. m. and it was not until 3 o'clock in the morning that the flames were brought under control. The losses are:

Merchants hotel, $12,000; P. O. Peterson, $12,000; Presley's drug store, $4,000; Alfred Smith, general store, $9,000; H. G. Johnson, general store, $11,000; Lounard's saloon, $5,000; Satterlund's jewelry store, $2,000; C. L. Johnson & Co., clothing store, $3,500.

Several barns were also destroyed and at times it seemed as if the flames would extend to every building in the place.

The fire had obtained a good start before being discovered and the buildings were an easy prey.

The guests of the hotel had plenty of time to escape and saved most of their effects.

WAS NOT SENSATIONAL.

Dinner to Mr. Asquith Passes Off Very Quietly.

London, July 20.—The dinner given to Hon. Herbert M. Asquith, M. P., by a number of members of the house of commons and 370 other prominent public men, which had been looked forward to for a month, as it was expected to lead to a division of the Liberal party, was a quiet and orderly affair. The event had evidently been spoiled by the events of the week, especially the letter of Lord Rosebery to the City Liberal club. Mr. Asquith spoke with deference of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman and of Lord Rosebery. He referred to his protest against the Liberal party identifying itself with the pro-Boer group, saying that Liberals must recognize the empire and its needs and the importance of domestic affairs. The speech was guarded in every way without altering the position of the Liberal party.

WERE ILLEGALLY COLLECTED

Klondike Miners Would Recover Royalties Paid Canada.

Seattle, Wash., July 20.—Advices from Dawson say that a well supported movement is on foot there to recover the royalties paid the Canadian government on gold mines in 18 All of the most interested mine owners of that period have joined together as plaintiffs and many who have since moved to the American side are joining the movement. The contention of the plaintiffs is to the effect that the royalties were illegally collected on the ground that the grants from the government for which the applicants paid a fee expressly stated that the grantees were entitled to "all" gold taken from their respective claims.

AUSTRIAN OFFICER DEGRADED.

Cut Off the Ear of One of His Friends on a Wager.

London, uly 20.—Count Gabriel Kepezey, a first lieutenant in one of the Honved Hussar regiments, says a dispatch to The Daily Mail from Budapest, has been formally degraded in Szgdein before the whole regiment. He made a dining bet that he would cut off the right ear of one of his b friends, Caspar Kanyo, with his sabre. He then approached the unsuspecting Kanyo and slashed off his ear. Kanyo fired at Kepezey with a revolver, but missed him. Then finding himself without the ear he turned the revolver on himself and fell dead. The colonel in degrading Kepezey warned the officers against drunkenness and debauchery.

Lipton's Sailors on Strike.

Glasgow, July 20.—Fifteen of the sailors engaged by Sir Thomas Lipton to sail the Shamrock II have refused to go to the United States unless they are given more money. The Shamrock II was dismantled at Greenock and the crew were paid off Fifteen who had arranged to transfer to the challenger at a bonus of £8 above their wages struck for £15. It is not known what Sir Thomas Lipton will decide to do.

Rhodes and Jameson in England.

London, July 20.—Cecil Rhodes and Dr. Jameson landed at Southampton from Cape Colony. They were met by Alfred Beit, the financier, and H. B. A. TO WIPE OUT SMALLPOX.

Systematic Fight Proposed by Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan.

Milwaukee, July 20.—Governor La Follette has issued a request to the state board of health for a special meeting in regard to the extinction of smallpox, to be held at Madison next week.

At that meeting arrangements will be made for a conference of all the boards of health of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota to plan for the extinction of the disease in this portion of the country, especially in the logging districts, which are permeated with cases of the epidemic.

The plans for the work are not formulated, but at its meeting next week the Wisconsin board will formulate a scheme of operating which will be presented to the officials of the other states when the conference is held. The trouble is now centered in the northern part of Wisconsin, the upper peninsula of Michigan and Minnesota.

By the constant interchange of business between the three districts the disease spreads readily and unless steps are taken before fall sets in there is every reason to believe that all three states are threatened with ravage by the disease. The meeting will be held at Duluth in August.

QUESTION OF AUTHORITY.

Postoffice Clerk Forced to Go With the Militia.

Muncie, Ind., July 20.—Company B of the Indiana national guard went to Indianapolis having in charge one member who is going under protest after having been forcibly taken from the postoffice. He is a clerk in the postoffice who could not get excused from one branch of the government service to enter the other and refused to go until forcibly taken away. He will be brought before Judge Baker in Indianapolis and there will be settled an interesting question as to which has authority in such cases, the federal or military departments.

NEW DANISH MINISTRY.

Dr. Deuntzer Entrusted With the Task of Forming a Cabinet.

Copenhagen, July 20.—King Christian has entrusted Dr. Deuntzer with the task of organizing a Liberal ministry to succeed the Deschested cabinet, which resigned Wednesday. The following selections have already been made:

President of the council, Dr. Deuntzer; minister of justice, Alberti; minister of the interior, Count Holstein; minister of foreign affairs, Alfred Hage; minister of finance, Christensen; minister of agriculture, Ole Hanson.

Greeks and Austrians Fight.

Denver, July 20.—A special to The News from Sydney, Neb., says: Greek and Austrian railway graders met here in deadly combat. Six Greeks were wounded and one Austrian was killed. After a drunken row the Austrians attacked the Greeks with knives, revolvers and clubs and completely routed them, after wounding six of their number. Rabe Lubovic, an Austrian, was killed.

Over Ninety Thousand Register.

El Reno, O. T., July 20.—When the registration booths closed 92,599 homeseekers had been given slips entitling them to a chance in the drawing. HEROINE OF THE PLAINS.

How "Calamity Jane," Noted Indian Fighter, Got Her Name.

Details of the manner in which "Calamity Jane," the noted frontierswoman of Montana, who has accepted the offer of a home by Mrs. Josephine Winfield Brake of Buffalo, came to be christened as she was by Captain Egan have lately appeared, says the Chicago American. The miners at Deadwood were besieged by a heavy force of Indians, and a command from the fort near Butte was ordered to the rescue. The relations between Indians and whites in the northwest were, to put it mildly, somewhat strained, and the redskins were inclined to be the aggressors. At any rate, there was a running fight from Butte to Deadwood and one or two sharp encounters. Finally came on a regular and fierce engagement. The firing attained to close range, and there was a heavy loss to the Indians and loss, though in a lesser degree, among the soldiers.

A charge was ordered and executed furiously, Captain Egan leading and "Calamity Jane," in her garb of a scout, close beside him. They were fairly among the Indians when suddenly the captain was seen to totter in his saddle. He retained his seat for a moment, then tumbled from his horse and lay unconscious upon the ground.

In a moment "Calamity Jane" was beside him. The soldiers were having their hands full, and here were these two, alone among a band of savages, for the fight had drifted from them. Two Indians saw their opportunity for scalps and rode down upon the single man, or what appeared to be a man. They never got those scalps. "Calamity Jane" killed one of the Indians, and, while the other hesitated a nearer approach, she lifted the unconscious captain to a place before her on her saddle and galloped away with him to a place of safety.

When Captain Egan regained his senses and discovered that his rescuer was a woman, he was astonished—the woman who had been known in camp as merely Jane.

"Well, Jane," said he as he lay bandaged in his tent, "you're a good one to have around in times of calamity."

The soldiers caught up the expression, and thenceforth and until now the fighting woman has been known only as "Calamity Jane."

TO STUDY ENGLISH ROWING

Object of Yale Oarsmen's Trip Abroad Leaks Out.

It was learned at New Haven the other evening that Captain Phil Kunzig of the Yale varsity crew has gone to England to join John Kennedy, Yale professional coach, in looking up points on rowing.

The Yale navy decided after the races at New London to send Kennedy abroad to study English rowing, says the Philadelphia Press. Kunzig and E. L. Mitchell of this year's varsity eight will be with Kennedy throughout the summer and together with him will gather all the information that they can get among the English boat clubs.

The New Excelsior.

The shades of night were all pulled down
As onward hustled through the town
A youth who bore where breezes stirred
A pennant with the single word,
"Commercialism!"

His brow was moist; his eye below
Gleamed with a dull and smoldering glow,
And like a cracked and ancient bell
Arose his queer, defiant yell,
"Commercialism!"

At happy lads in harmless play
He coldly stared and strode away,
And as he passed they faintly heard
Him mutter forth that fated word,
"Commercialism!"

"Oh, wait," the pastor hailed the youth,
"And humbly learn eternal truth!"
"I'll think of that," the boy replied,
"When I have turned the golden tide.
Commercialism!"

"Oh, come to school," the master said,
"And fill with lore your youthful head!"
The boy yelled back as on he raced:
"Old man, I have no years to waste!
Commercialism!"

"Oh, stay," the maiden softly cried,
"And I will be your loving bride!"
The youth called back, with scornful smile:
"Just wait until I've made my pile!
Commercialism!"

Then cried the sage, "Beware the joys
That link themselves to golden toys!"
"Bah!" cried the youth. "You do but jest!
I've linked my life unto this quest.
Commercialism!"

Right on he kept his hurried pace
Nor staid for aught the golden chase,
His watchword still the eager croak
That hardly on the silence broke,
"Commercialism!"

He craved for fortune more and more
When weight of years upon him bore,
And still with feeble whining cried,
"There is no power that ranks beside
Commercialism!"

One day they found him dead and cold
Beside his chests of worshiped gold,
And on the breeze that round him moaned
They heard that fateful word intoned,
"Commercialism!"

Golf In the Old Days.

Centuries back golf was a pastime of the royal family, though then usually played in Scotland. The Stuart family was very fond of the game, and the first English club was established at Blackheath in 1608 by James I. His eldest son, Henry, frequently played and on one occasion nearly struck by accident his tutor with a club, whereupon he coolly remarked, "Had I done so I had but paid my debts." Charles I was playing golf when he received the news of the Irish rebellion. James, duke of York, afterward James II, was another ardent player. Golf is frequently mentioned in ancient Scottish records and in the fifteenth century was prohibited because it interfered with the practice of archery. Strutt considered it the most ancient game at ball requiring a bat.—London Chronicle.

The Squirrel Hunter's Weapon.

The cream of squirrel hunting is enjoyed by the man who uses a light rifle of small caliber and medium power. The ".22 long" as now turned out by our leading makers is an excellent weapon—in fact, the best in the world for the purpose. Though not of sufficient range to be dangerous to people or stock at a distance, it throws lead with surprising accuracy to the tops of the tallest trees. Good rifle shots always aim for the squirrel's head both to add to the difficulty of the sport and to avoid spoiling meat. And be it known that a squirrel's head at a range of 40 or 50 yards is no easy mark. If a reader doubts this, let him go to the woods for a day, keep all empty shells, and at the end of the day let him try to make the dead squirrels and the empty shells tally.—E. W. Sandys in Outing.

Early Birds.

The green finch is the earliest riser. It pipes as early as half past 1 in the morning. The blackcap begins at half past 2. It is nearly 4 o'clock before the blackbird appears. It is heard half an hour before the thrush, and the chirp of the robin begins about the same length of time before that of the wren. The house sparrow and the tomtit take the last stage of the list.

Advantages of Port Cities.

The revenue New York derives from the rental of piers to the Cunard, the White Star, the American, the Atlantic Transport, the French, the Leyland, the National and other lines is nearly $1,000,000 annually. The White Star line pays the largest rental, $217,000; the Cunard line is next with $120,000 and the American line third with $88,400.—Ainslee's.

Life Insurance.

It is an interesting fact that, whatever the reason may be, life insurance is much more popular in the United States than in any other country. In proportion to their numbers the American people carry twice as much life insurance as the Britishers, five times as much as the Germans and eight times as much as the French.

This is partly explained by the large number of American policies issued to serve other purposes than mere provision for the families of the insured. The scope of what may be called business as distinguished from family insurance is constantly enlarging. A novel and interesting recent development of it is the insurance of the lives of Protestant ministers for large sums which are made payable at their deaths to their churches.—New York World.

Where They Agreed.

At the silver wedding of the Prince and Princess of Wales an English town wished to present an address, but there was a great discussion as to its wording. For some time they could not agree at all. "Conscious as we are of our own unworthiness" was universally condemned, but when some one proposed "Conscious as we are of each other's unworthiness" it was agreed to to a man.

CAUSED A HEAVY LOSS.

Business Portion of Cambridge, Minn., Destroyed by Fire.

Cambridge, Minn., July 20.—Fire swept the business portion of this town during the night and inflicted an aggregate loss of over $60,000. The fire is supposed to have started in the rear of Presley's drug store at 11:15 p. m. and it was not until 3 o'clock in the morning that the flames were brought under control. The losses are:

Merchants hotel, $12,000; P. O. Peterson, $12,000; Presley's drug store, $4,000; Alfred Smith, general store, $9,000; H. G. Johnson, general store, $11,000; Lounard's saloon, $5,000; Satterlund's jewelry store, $2,000; C. L. Johnson & Co., clothing store, $3,500.

Several barns were also destroyed and at times it seemed as if the flames would extend to every building in the place.

The fire had obtained a good start before being discovered and the buildings were an easy prey.

The guests of the hotel had plenty of time to escape and saved most of their effects.

WAS NOT SENSATIONAL.

Dinner to Mr. Asquith Passes Off Very Quietly.

London, July 20.—The dinner given to Hon. Herbert M. Asquith, M. P., by a number of members of the house of commons and 370 other prominent public men, which had been looked forward to for a month, as it was expected to lead to a division of the Liberal party, was a quiet and orderly affair. The event had evidently been spoiled by the events of the week, especially the letter of Lord Rosebery to the City Liberal club. Mr. Asquith spoke with deference of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman and of Lord Rosebery. He referred to his protest against the Liberal party identifying itself with the pro-Boer group, saying that Liberals must recognize the empire and its needs and the importance of domestic affairs. The speech was guarded in every way without altering the position of the Liberal party.

WERE ILLEGALLY COLLECTED

Klondike Miners Would Recover Royalties Paid Canada.

Seattle, Wash., July 20.—Advices from Dawson say that a well supported movement is on foot there to recover the royalties paid the Canadian government on gold mines in 18 All of the most interested mine owners of that period have joined together as plaintiffs and many who have since moved to the American side are joining the movement. The contention of the plaintiffs is to the effect that the royalties were illegally collected on the ground that the grants from the government for which the applicants paid a fee expressly stated that the grantees were entitled to "all" gold taken from their respective claims.

AUSTRIAN OFFICER DEGRADED.

Cut Off the Ear of One of His Friends on a Wager.

London, uly 20.—Count Gabriel Kepezey, a first lieutenant in one of the Honved Hussar regiments, says a dispatch to The Daily Mail from Budapest, has been formally degraded in Szgdein before the whole regiment. He made a dining bet that he would cut off the right ear of one of his b friends, Caspar Kanyo, with his sabre. He then approached the unsuspecting Kanyo and slashed off his ear. Kanyo fired at Kepezey with a revolver, but missed him. Then finding himself without the ear he turned the revolver on himself and fell dead. The colonel in degrading Kepezey warned the officers against drunkenness and debauchery.

Lipton's Sailors on Strike.

Glasgow, July 20.—Fifteen of the sailors engaged by Sir Thomas Lipton to sail the Shamrock II have refused to go to the United States unless they are given more money. The Shamrock II was dismantled at Greenock and the crew were paid off Fifteen who had arranged to transfer to the challenger at a bonus of £8 above their wages struck for £15. It is not known what Sir Thomas Lipton will decide to do.

Rhodes and Jameson in England.

London, July 20.—Cecil Rhodes and Dr. Jameson landed at Southampton from Cape Colony. They were met by Alfred Beit, the financier, and H. B. A. Hawksley, counsel for the British South Africa company, and other friends. Mr. Rhodes and Mr. Beit declined to discuss South African questions, saying they were no longer public men.

Schlatter Charged With Vagrancy.

Washington, July 20.—The man claiming to be Francis Schlatter and representing himself as a divine healer was arrested in this city and was examined by physicians to determine his sanity. They reached the conclusion that he is not a proper subject for an asylum and he will be arraigned on a charge of vagrancy.

More Boer Prisoners at Bermuda.

Hamilton, Bermuda, July 20.—The British transport Ranee arrived here at daylight from St. Vincent, Cape Verde island, with the second batch of Boer prisoners of war for confinement on Darrells and Tuckers islands. The prisoners number 519 men. The Ranee had a fair passage.

Evansville, Ind., July 19.—Two freight trains on the Louisville and Nashville railroad collided headon at Nortonville, Ky., killing two men and injuring four, two fatally.

TO WIPE OUT SMALLPOX.

Systematic Fight Proposed by Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan.

Milwaukee, July 20.—Governor La Follette has issued a request to the state board of health for a special meeting in regard to the extinction of smallpox, to be held at Madison next week.

At that meeting arrangements will be made for a conference of all the boards of health of Michigan, Wisconsin and Minnesota to plan for the extinction of the disease in this portion of the country, especially in the logging districts, which are permeated with cases of the epidemic.

The plans for the work are not formulated, but at its meeting next week the Wisconsin board will formulate a scheme of operating which will be presented to the officials of the other states when the conference is held. The trouble is now centered in the northern part of Wisconsin, the upper peninsula of Michigan and Minnesota.

By the constant interchange of business between the three districts the disease spreads readily and unless steps are taken before fall sets in there is every reason to believe that all three states are threatened with ravage by the disease. The meeting will be held at Duluth in August.

QUESTION OF AUTHORITY.

Postoffice Clerk Forced to Go With the Militia.

Muncie, Ind., July 20.—Company B of the Indiana national guard went to Indianapolis having in charge one member who is going under protest after having been forcibly taken from the postoffice. He is a clerk in the postoffice who could not get excused from one branch of the government service to enter the other and refused to go until forcibly taken away. He will be brought before Judge Baker in Indianapolis and there will be settled an interesting question as to which has authority in such cases, the federal or military departments.

NEW DANISH MINISTRY.

Dr. Deuntzer Entrusted With the Task of Forming a Cabinet.

Copenhagen, July 20.—King Christian has entrusted Dr. Deuntzer with the task of organizing a Liberal ministry to succeed the Deschested cabinet, which resigned Wednesday. The following selections have already been made:

President of the council, Dr. Deuntzer; minister of justice, Alberti; minister of the interior, Count Holstein; minister of foreign affairs, Alfred Hage; minister of finance, Christensen; minister of agriculture, Ole Hanson.

Greeks and Austrians Fight.

Denver, July 20.—A special to The News from Sydney, Neb., says: Greek and Austrian railway graders met here in deadly combat. Six Greeks were wounded and one Austrian was killed. After a drunken row the Austrians attacked the Greeks with knives, revolvers and clubs and completely routed them, after wounding six of their number. Rabe Lubovic, an Austrian, was killed.

Over Ninety Thousand Register.

El Reno, O. T., July 20.—When the registration booths closed 92,599 homeseekers had been given slips entitling them to a chance in the drawing. The day's figures from El Reno were 10,339, making a total of 70,497, while 1,447 persons registered at Lawton, briging the total for that place up to 22,102.

Hot Again at Duluth.

Duluth, July 20.—The hot wave has the head of the Lakes in its grasp again and between the hours of 10 a. m. and 1 p. m. the temperature shot up 30 degs. It registered 62 at 10 and 92 at 1. The maximum for the day was 96.

HEROINE OF THE PLAINS.

How "Calamity Jane," Noted Indian Fighter, Got Her Name.

Details of the manner in which "Calamity Jane," the noted frontierswoman of Montana, who has accepted the offer of a home by Mrs. Josephine Winfield Brake of Buffalo, came to be christened as she was by Captain Egan have lately appeared, says the Chicago American. The miners at Deadwood were besieged by a heavy force of Indians, and a command from the fort near Butte was ordered to the rescue. The relations between Indians and whites in the northwest were, to put it mildly, somewhat strained, and the redskins were inclined to be the aggressors. At any rate, there was a running fight from Butte to Deadwood and one or two sharp encounters. Finally came on a regular and fierce engagement. The firing attained to close range, and there was a heavy loss to the Indians and loss, though in a lesser degree, among the soldiers.

A charge was ordered and executed furiously, Captain Egan leading and "Calamity Jane," in her garb of a scout, close beside him. They were fairly among the Indians when suddenly the captain was seen to totter in his saddle. He retained his seat for a moment, then tumbled from his horse and lay unconscious upon the ground.

In a moment "Calamity Jane" was beside him. The soldiers were having their hands full, and here were these two, alone among a band of savages, for the fight had drifted from them. Two Indians saw their opportunity for scalps and rode down upon the single man, or what appeared to be a man. They never got those scalps. "Calamity Jane" killed one of the Indians, and, while the other hesitated a nearer approach, she lifted the unconscious captain to a place before her on her saddle and galloped away with him to a place of safety.

When Captain Egan regained his senses and discovered that his rescuer was a woman, he was astonished—the woman who had been known in camp as merely Jane.

"Well, Jane," said he as he lay bandaged in his tent, "you're a good one to have around in times of calamity."

The soldiers caught up the expression, and thenceforth and until now the fighting woman has been known only as "Calamity Jane."
